So many highlights of the year will stand out in our memory books, some more than others, but each one of us will remember the 77-78 year in our own special way.

. . . It was a crisp night and the spotlights shone the light of day down upon the stadium. As the parade of corvetts crawled out onto the teack, the mood was set for the event. The night "Homecoming" and the class of '78 clapped and cheered, as they saw their classmates stand before them, one of which about to receive a sparkling crown.

. . . During "Farmer Day" the Hee Haw gang invade our halls and the students mimicked their favorite hillbilly. Bib overhalls were the formal attire for the day and beautiful smiles were decorated with crude gaps.

. . . Theyear rolled and often stumbled on the Falcons' enthusiasm spilled over into the Redskins' gymnasium and a cry for victory railroaded down U.S. The stands were screaming after their cry came true and Fairfield Falcons "fired up for victory"

. . . Snow, snow and more snow until you could no longer see out the window to see it snow. The month of January was devasted by the snow once again and the students experienced a bit of "cabin fever".

. . . Until finally the day that the new generation of young adults who had anticipated the future with fresh optimism filed into the gymnasium.

Through the handshakes and the tears of sentimentality from their parents they left as fast as they came clutching their own ticket into the world.

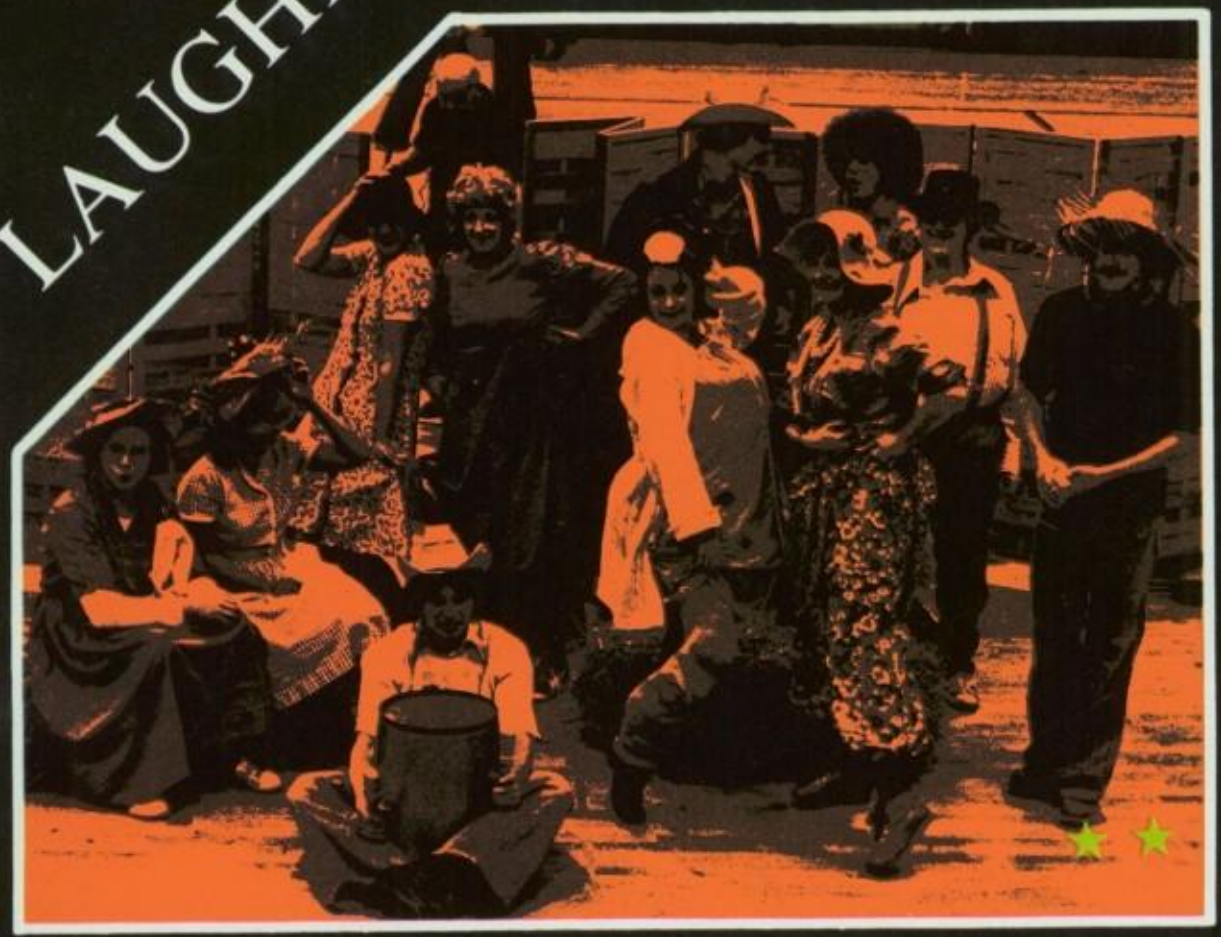
LAUGHING TOGETHER



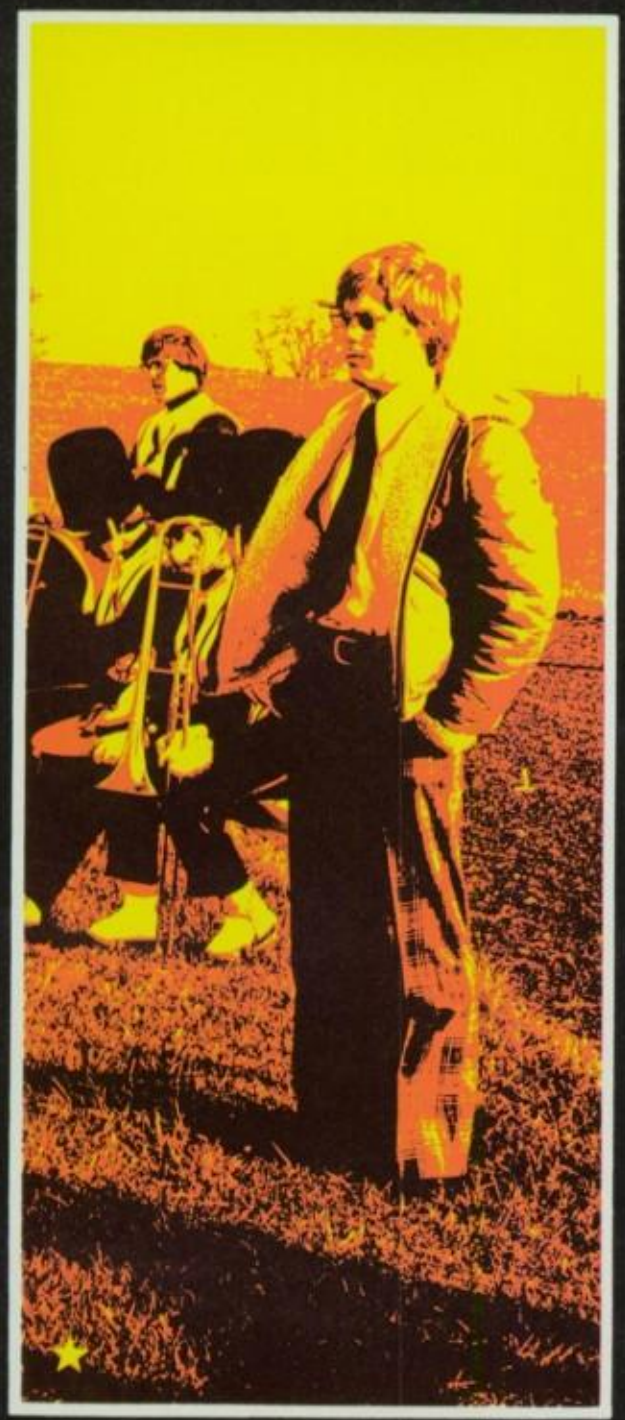
HOMEWORK

You could always tell the ones who had classes that required a lot of homework. After carrying all those books they could bench-press 105 lbs.

Some kids had it easy, they had time in school to do it. But others had to haul it all home day after day and work on it night after night.

But some had enough time to work on it in the library when they weren't busy getting thrown out of the library, or out of the resource center, or out of the cafetorium or out ...

The main problem with homework was that it was time consuming. It seemed like it took hours to read just one page in English of course watching the Gong Show or Sha-Na-Na didn't help any but what could it hurt? After all they were very educational shows, ask anyone!



WORKING TOGETHER

P. 12 * — Washing dishes isn't all that bad, sometimes its even fun.

 — Its Hee Haw! No, not rea!-ly, its Mrs. Craven's speech class. What a bunch of hillbillies!

STILL CRAZY AFTER

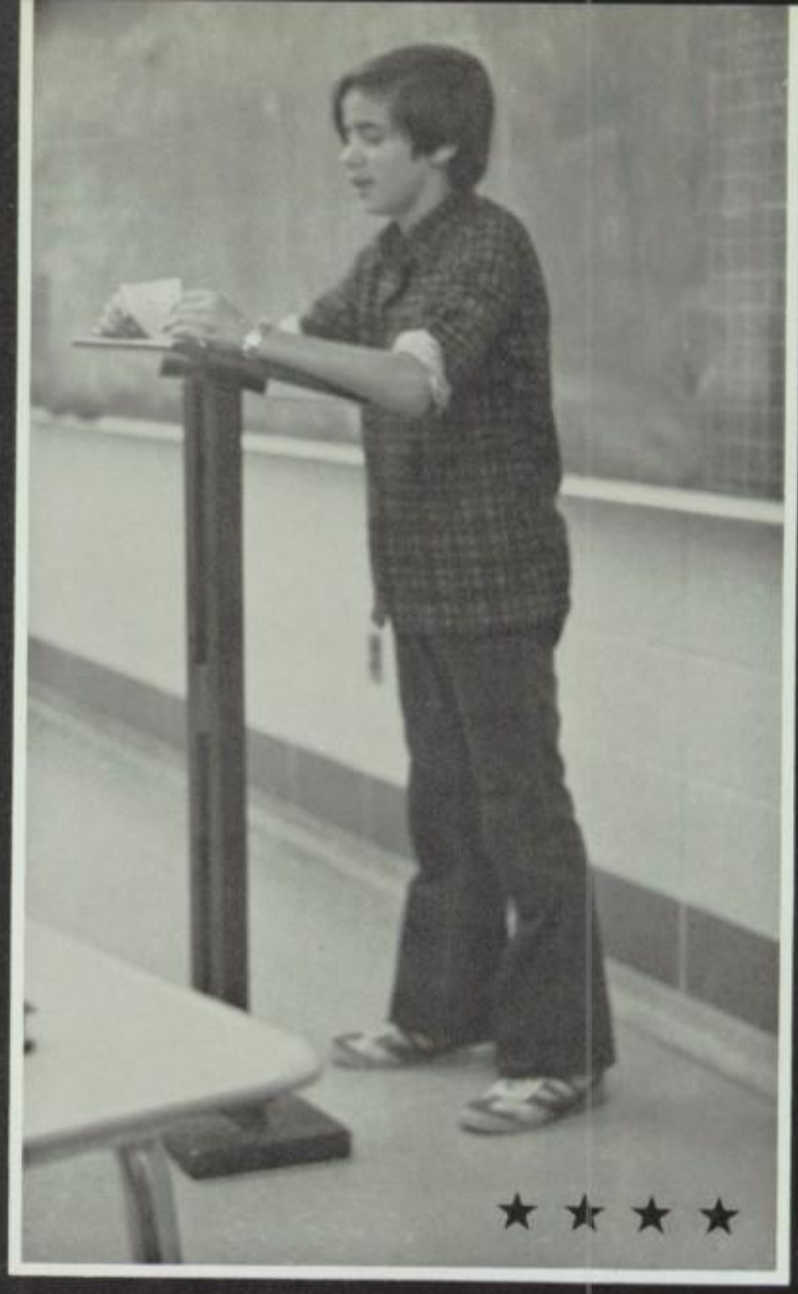
 — Geometry can be fun? Well at least Deb Miller and Linda Hooley think it is.

* — 7th grade English is a great learning experience. Students teaching class adds to the fun.

 — Delane Miller studies that flag, while Tom Wilhelm studies her and Mike Myers studies the photographer!

* — Mr. Duesler instructs Mike Clawson and Randy Miller in Building Trades Class.

 — John Uryga and Steve Hooley check their answers from Geometry — Have fun guys!



Studying Time

Study, study, study ... it always seemed to be a never ending battle of the books. There were books to be read, notes to be taken and just plain assignments to be done. Sometimes it seemed as if you could take every book home every night and study till 12 but never catch up.

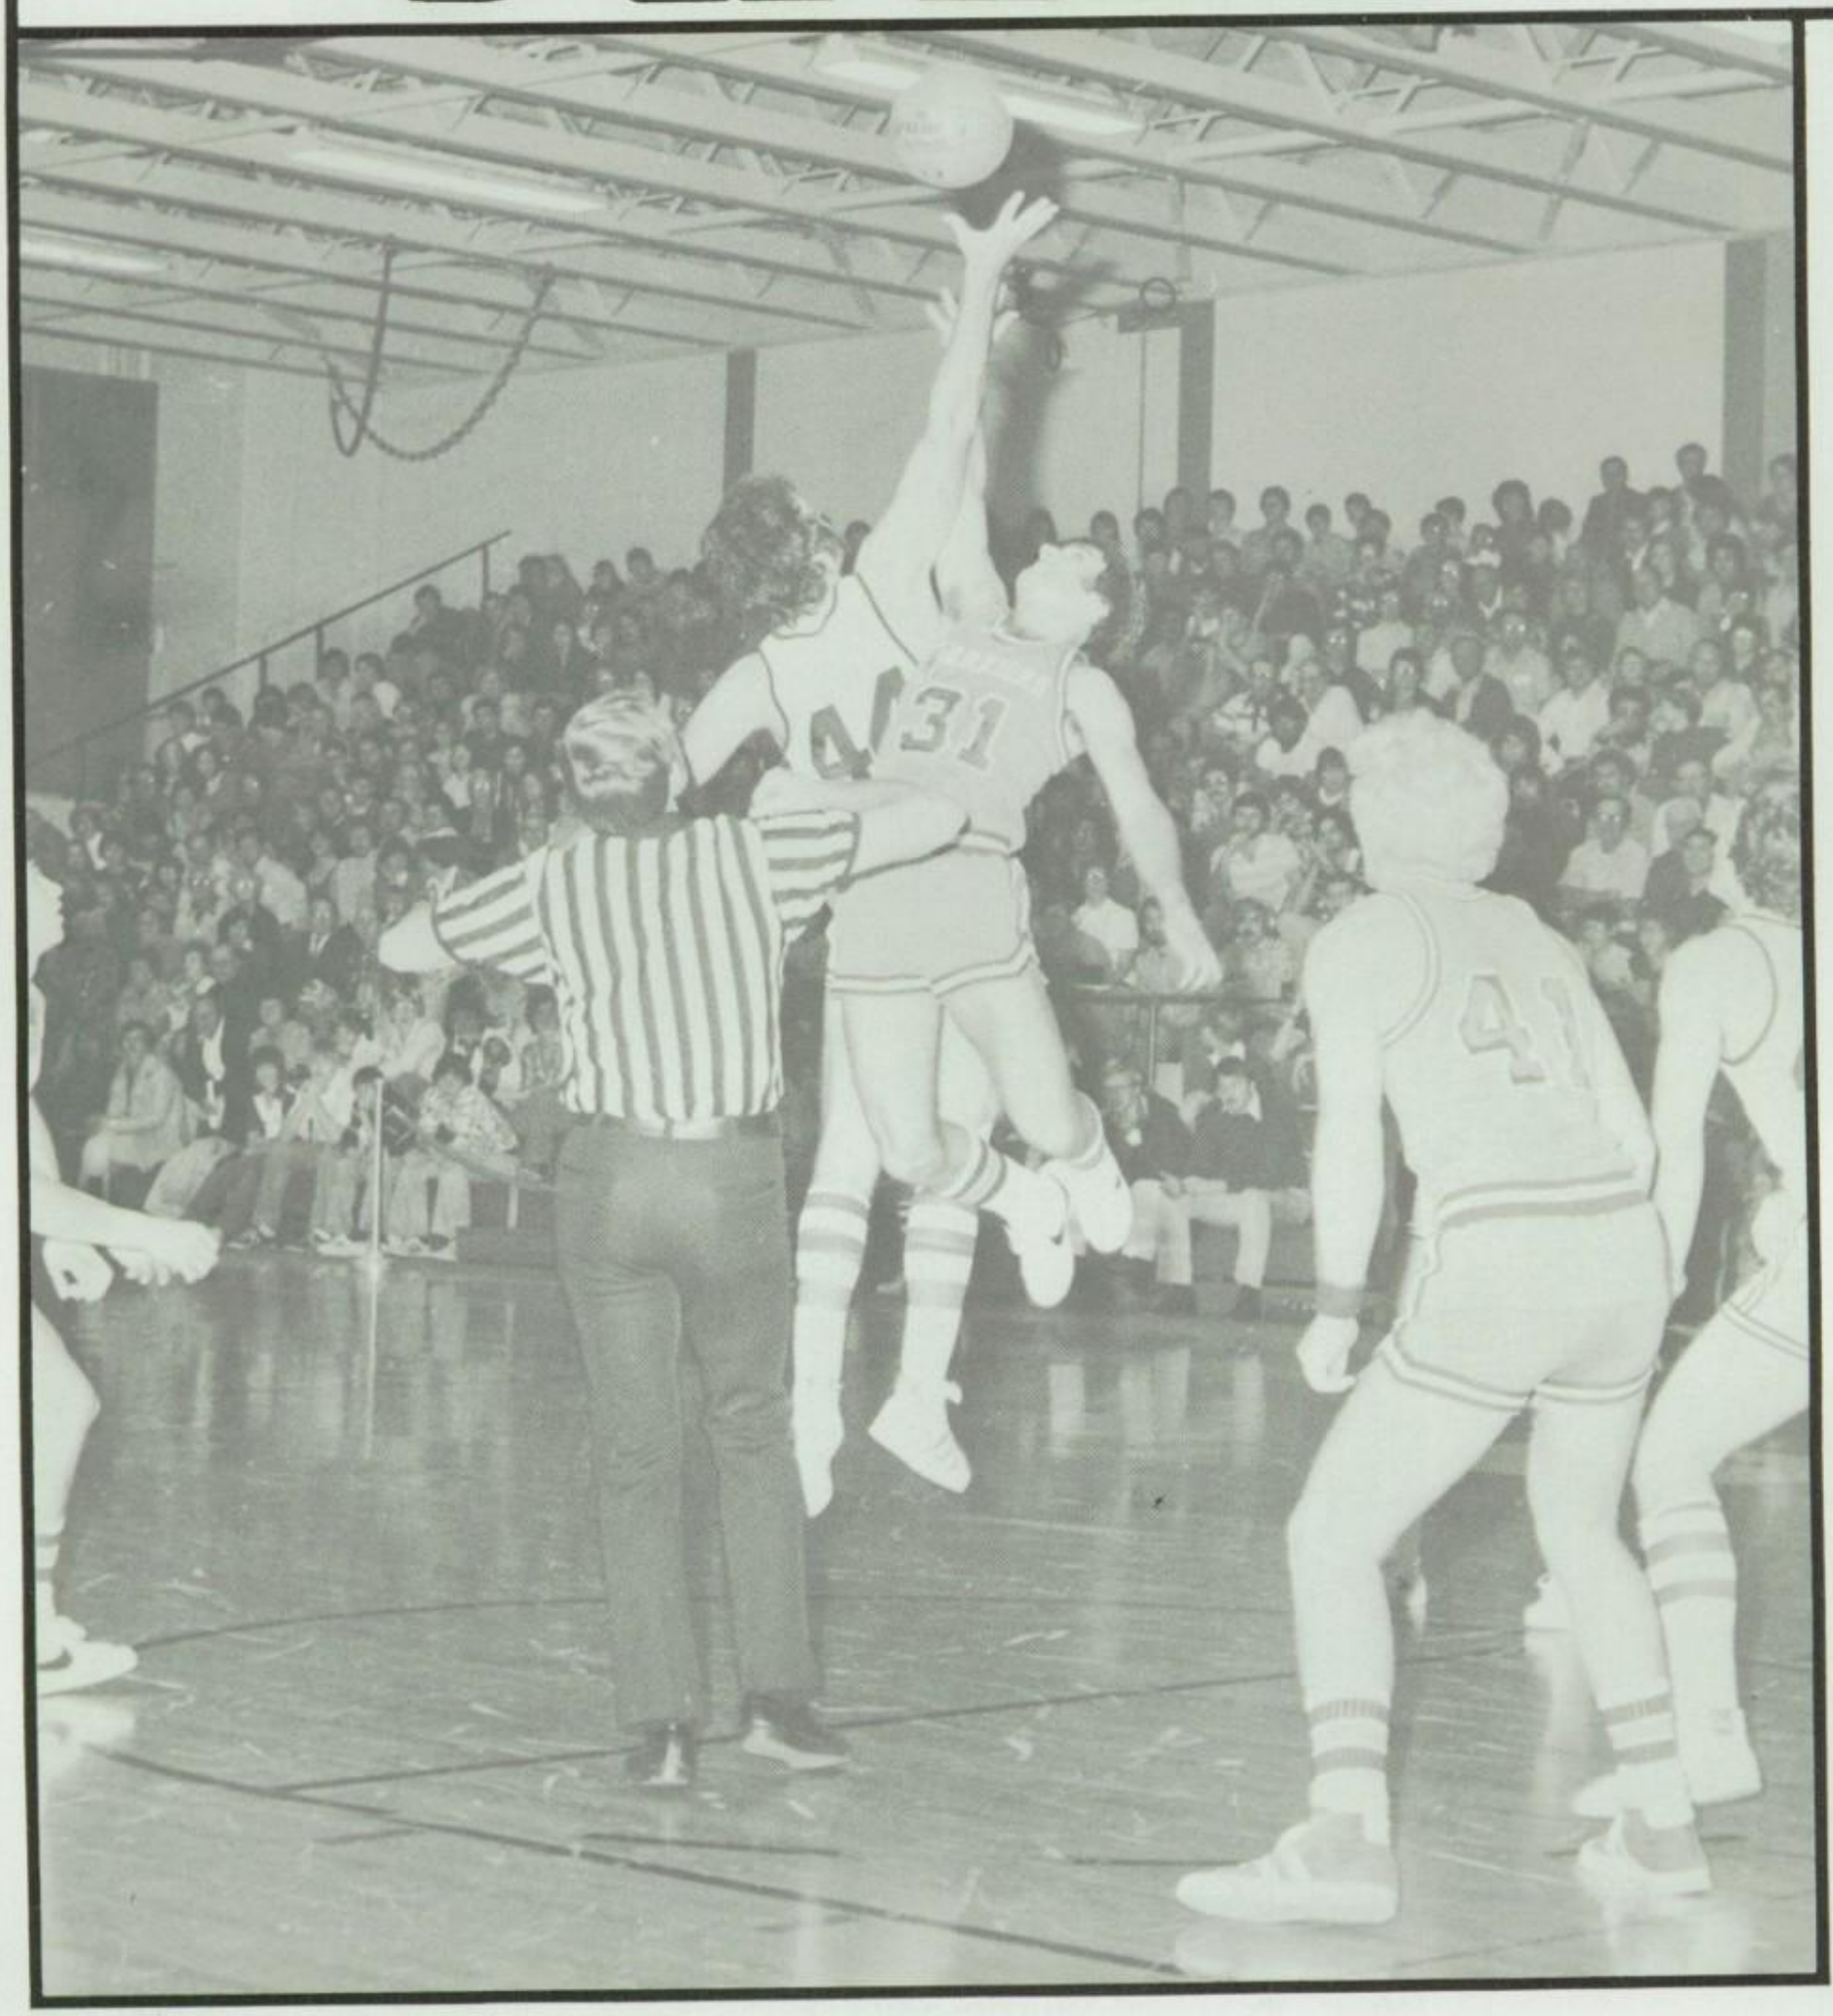
For Juniors, Sophomores and Mr. Kidders eighth graders there were projects to be done. These took up spare time that could be used for doing more "important" things: Shopping, cruising, talking, sleeping or just plain goofing off.

If you didn't get it done you were assigned to study hall to sure it was done, you might have gotten it done then, but the library, resource center, caf. were too easy to talk in which didn't give you much time for concentration.

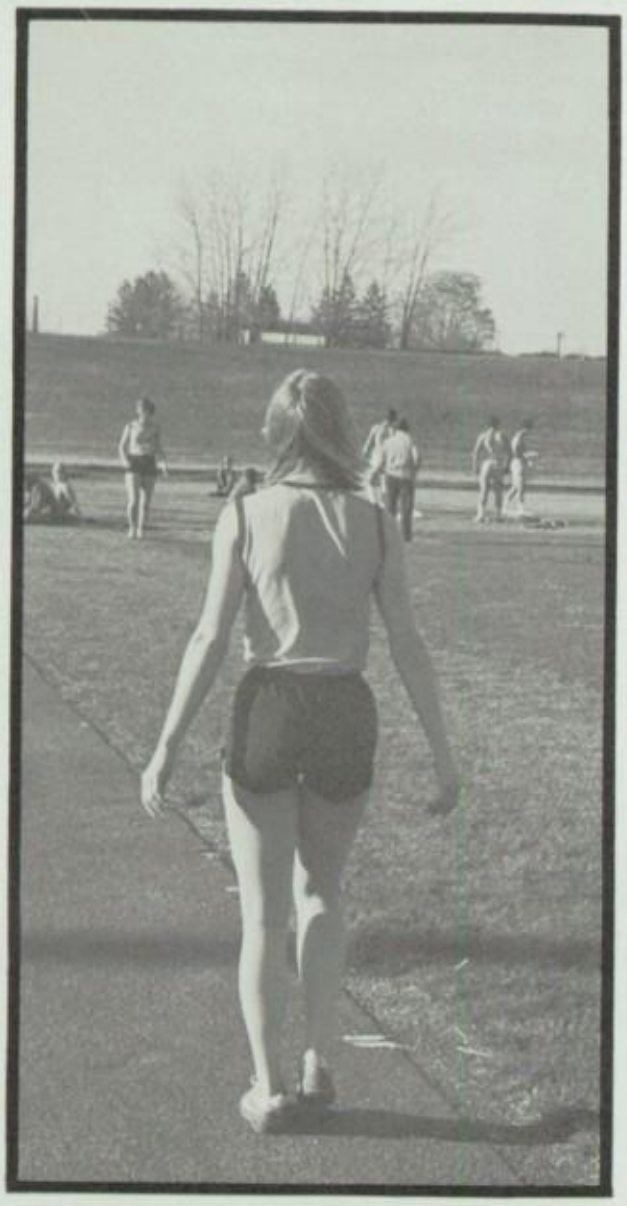
But even through the gossip, studying was always finished. Maybe not on time, but finished.

ALL THESE YEARS!

SWEAT;



IT WAS A GOOD GAME



Often we seem to forget the coaches involved with the athletic program and praise just the athletes themselves. Coach Weaver, Kidder, and Miller, to name just a few, deserve much more recognition than given to them. Without their yelling, screaming, and shouting sports would be just another game.

MVP — Gerry Troyer
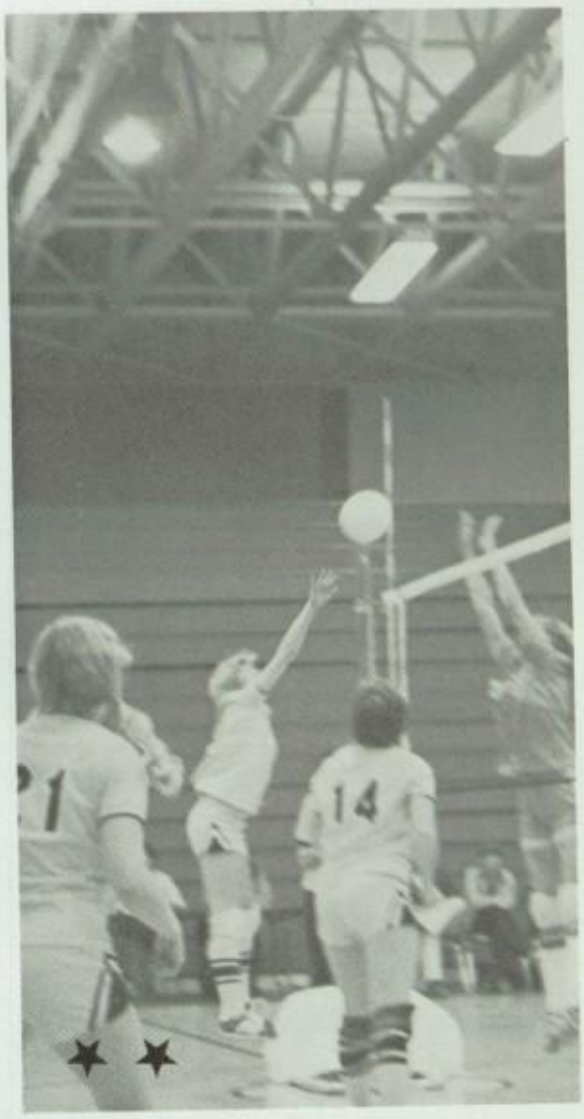
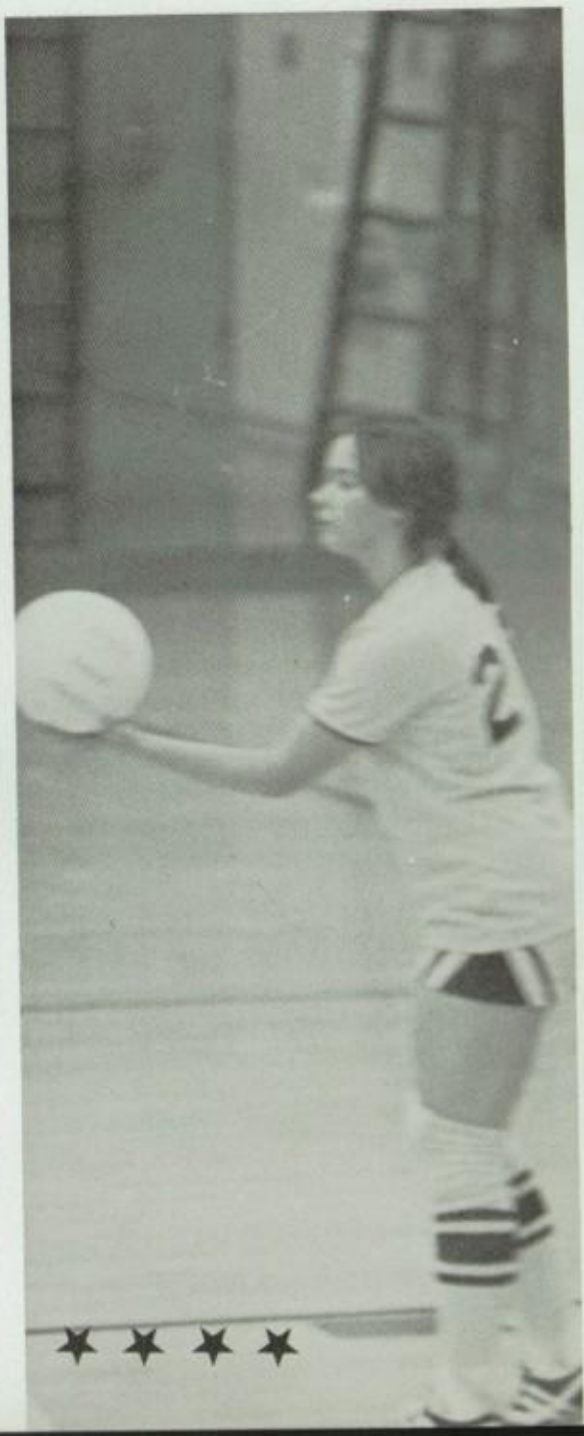
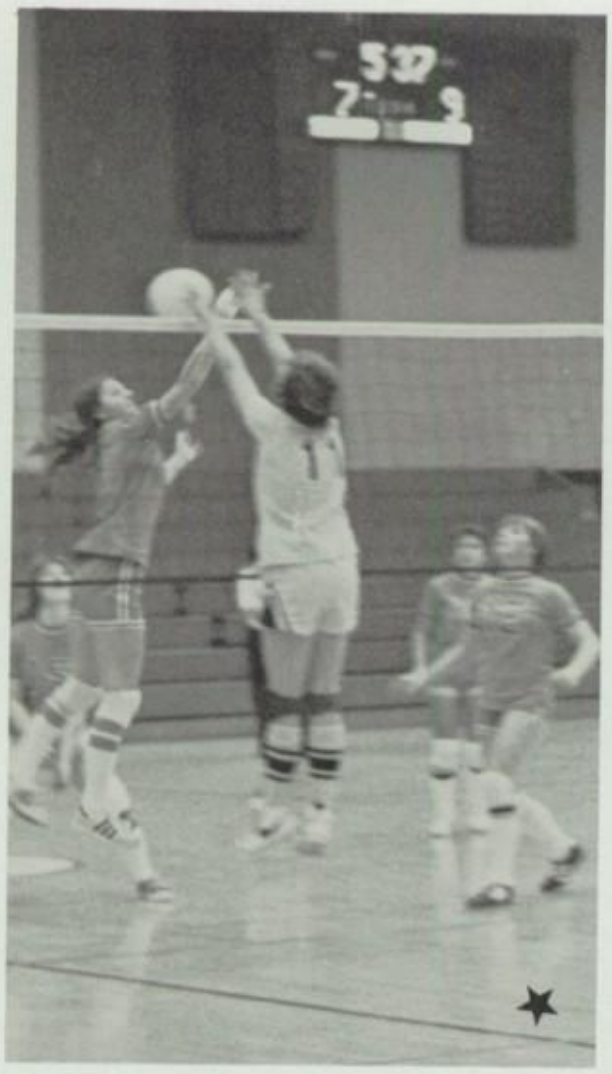
Most Improved — Tony Miller
Most Points — Gary Dausman and Rick Troyer

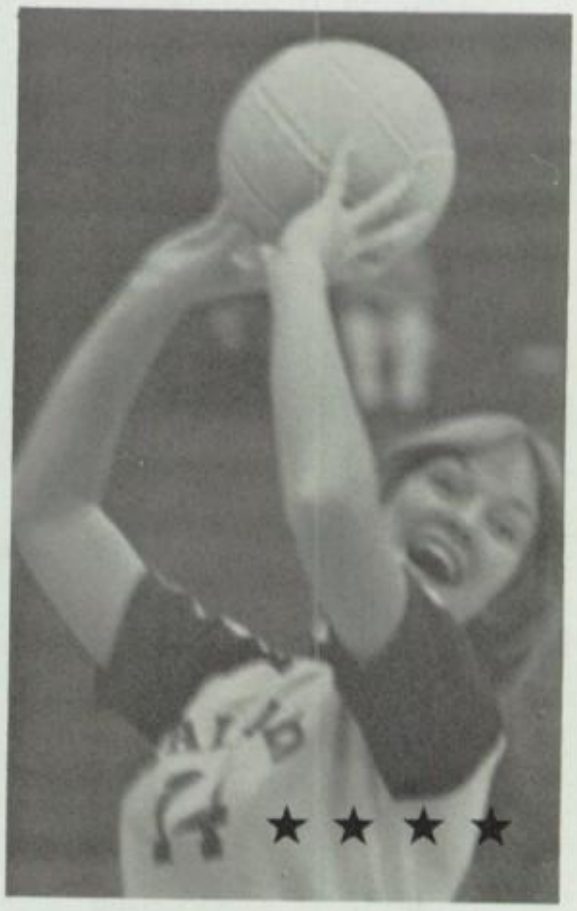


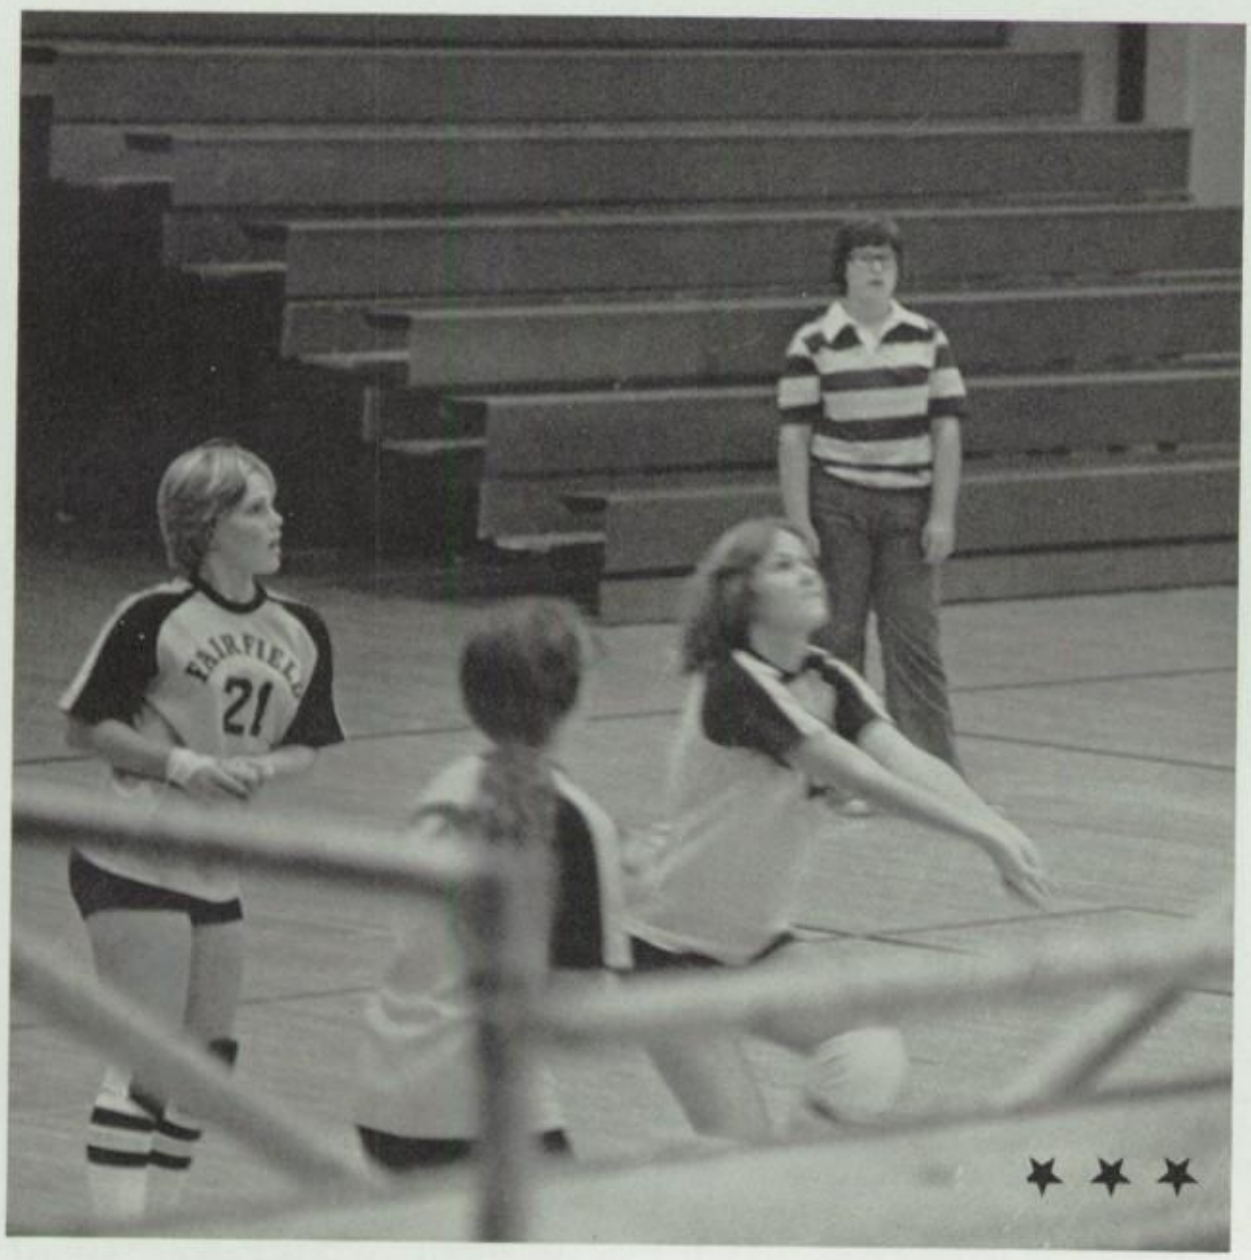


★ 1. Miss Miller didn't play around when her girls were playing.
★★ 2. Kim Burger's skill in spiking should help the girls win big.
★★★ 3. B. Myers, L. Rockenbaugh, N. Kammendiener, K. Layman, J. Showalter, C. Clawson, Coach Miller, J. Gawthrop, K. Burger, D. Kammendiener, K. Skibbee, E. Stutzman, D. Burkholder.
★★★★ 4. To win, good serves were needed, and Lori Rockenbaugh helped us out a lot.



Volleyball awards this year were well scattered, MIP went to Kim Burger, a sophomore; Most Points went to Jama Gawthrop, a junior; and MVP went to Jody Showalter, a senior. Miss Miller coached the Jr. Varsity team to a 2-10 record and the varsity to a 5-8 record. A lot of practice and laps go into volleyball and this year was no different in any way, practice still means setting, spiking, and serving.





★ 1. Kelly Layman wasted no time in putting this one away.
★★ 2. Volleyball is teamwork, and that's why the Falcon team worked so well.
★★★ 3. Volleyball meant a lot to the girls because they gave their best.
★★★★ 4. Volleyball gave the girls a chance to really have fun at winning.

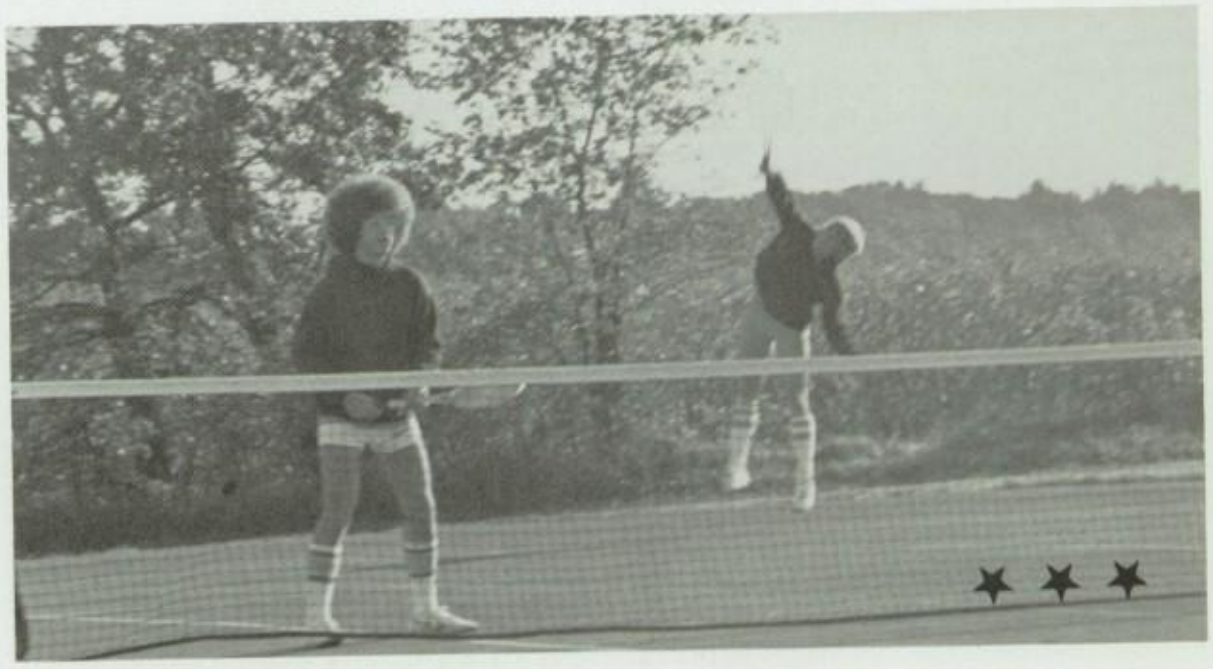
THIS YEAR WAS THE YEAR FOR REBUILDING.

Fairfield under went construction this year with three new tennis courts which meant that all matches had to be played on the opposing courts. Because of this, fans weren't so plentiful, and sad to say wins weren't either, but the guys did taste the thrill of victory and worked hard for it. Mr. Krider coached the team and kept them shootin' for the stars.

★ 1. First Row: T. Miller, B. Whitehead, R. Everest, M. Everest, L. Bender, J. Zellinger, D. Bowman, Second Row: Mr. Kryder, L. Lehman, T. Keim, S. Hooley, M. Blough, T. McDowell

★★ 2. Who needs Jimmy Connors when you have Tony McDowell? Who was MVP.

★★★ 3. Practicing doubles helped the Falcon tennis team win.



The 1977-78 cross-country team brought the best season ever to Fairfield, with a record of 9-5. Gerry Troyer was MVP, and lead the Falcons to victory many times. Victory didn't come easy though, the guys had to put in lots of hard work that really paid off. Thanks guys for a great season

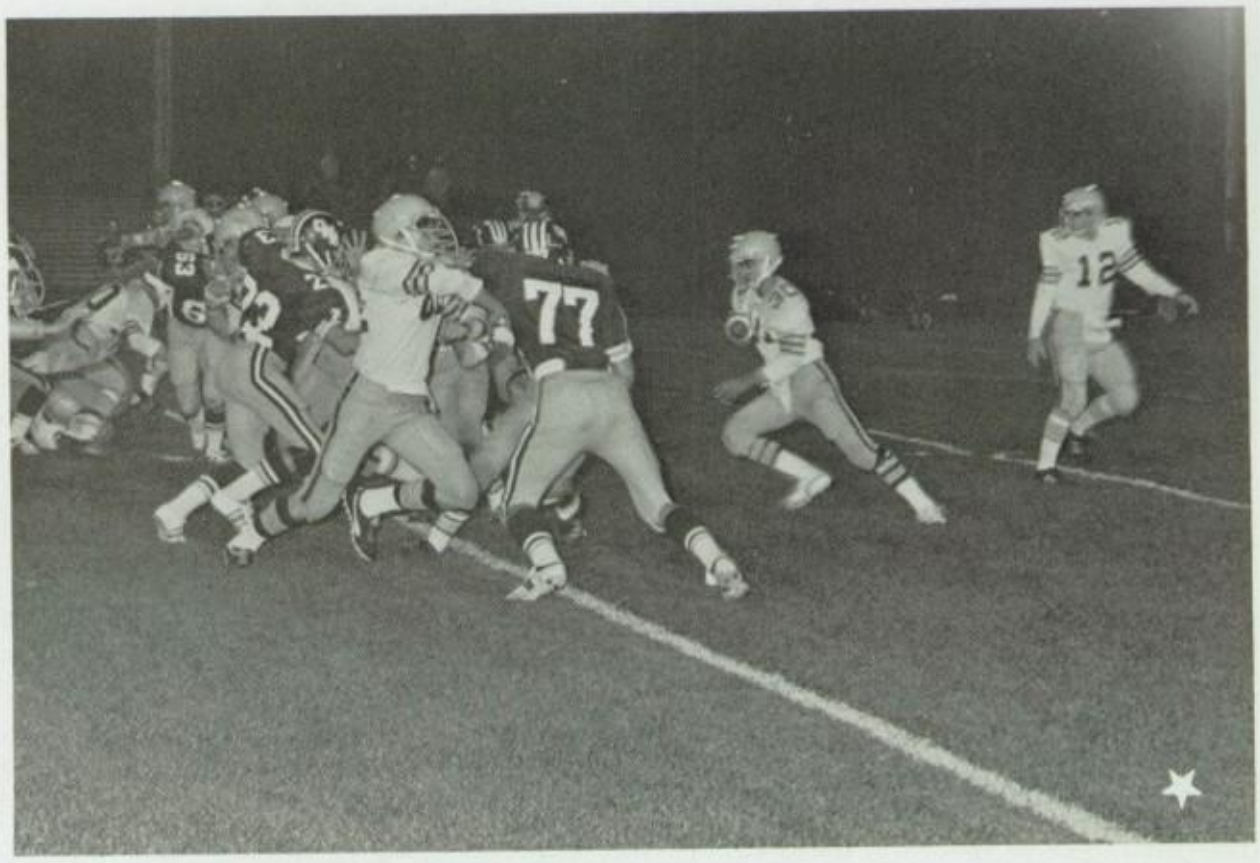
★ 1. First Row: B. Vale, R. Kelly, D. Troyer, T. Keim. Row 2: Mr. Dallman, S. Kimlick, M. Igney, G. Troyer.
★★ 2. Determination defeats the idea of giving up for Randy Kelly.
★★★ 3. Fatigue never stopped the falcon train from a victory.

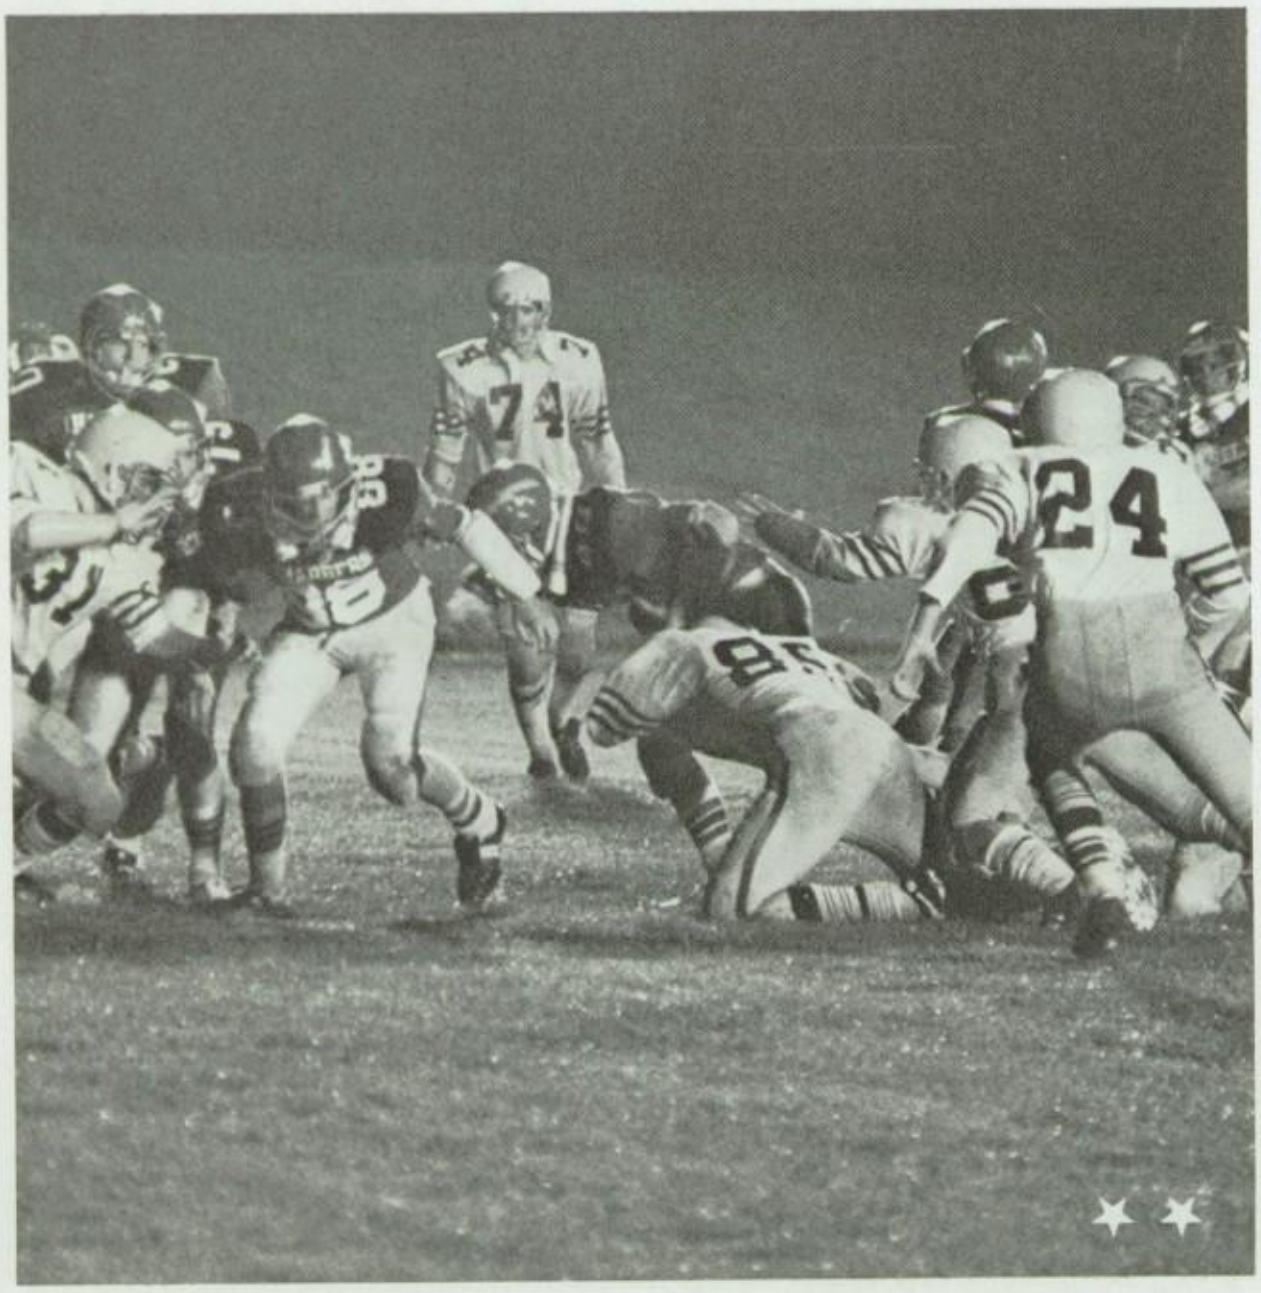
FALCONS RAN FOR THE VICTORY AND THE BEST RECORD EVER.

TEAM SPIRIT OVERCOMES 1-9 RECORD

We had a rough year this time around as the 1-9 record indicates, but the fans always showed, neither rain nor shower, nor dark of night kept them away or kept them from hoping that this game might turn it all around. We did taste victory as a team, just not enough times. The guys fought hard, and the fans yelled hard. "We're backing your Big Blue," and we did too! Seems like everytime you were beginning to forget the game and worry about your hair or your clothes shrinking in the many rainy games, the team did something that turned your attention back to them.

All in all the team got along really well but they did leave a few unanswered questions . . . Did Personal Typing really ruin Gary Dausman's and Jim Spiecher's hands? Did Mr. Weaver really try to to borrow Tony Hanes high shoes or was he afraid he would fall off of them? Could Tim Breniser's sock really stand in a corner by themselves? and Does Mr. Weaver really get short girl statisticians so he can see over them?





★ Lynn Mascarenas runs for some difficult but much needed yardage.

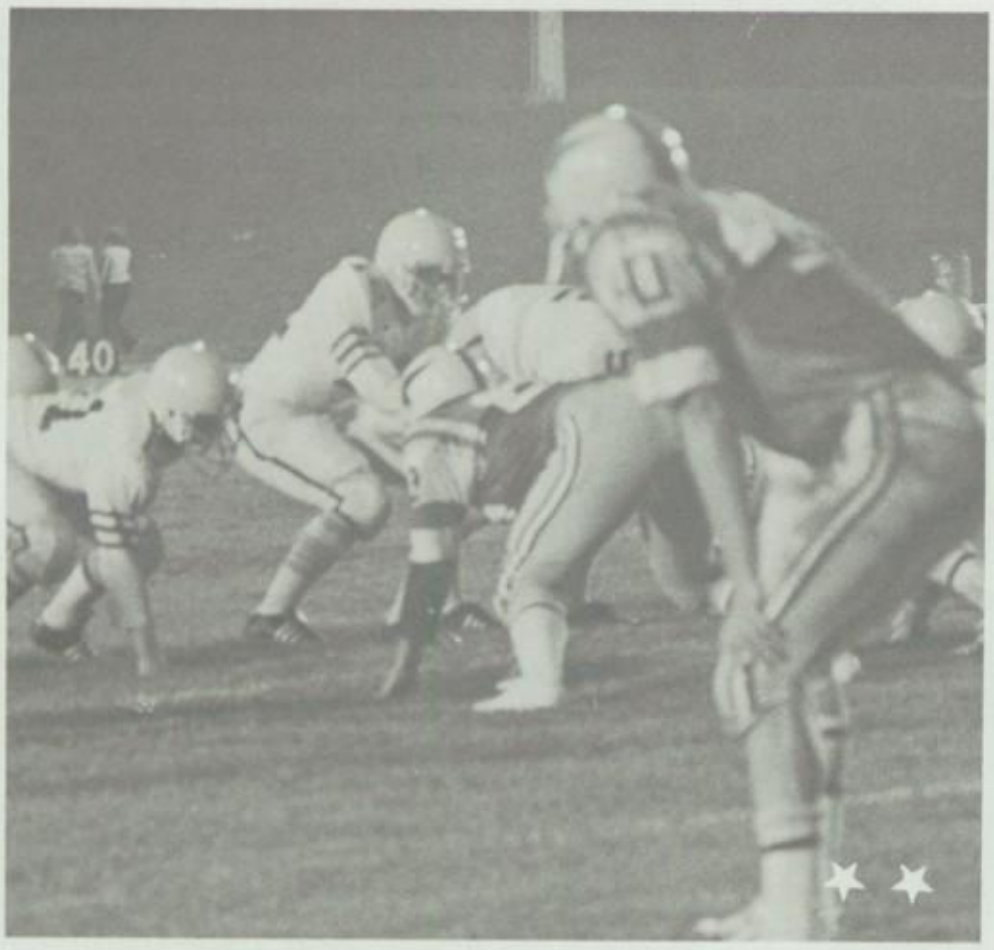
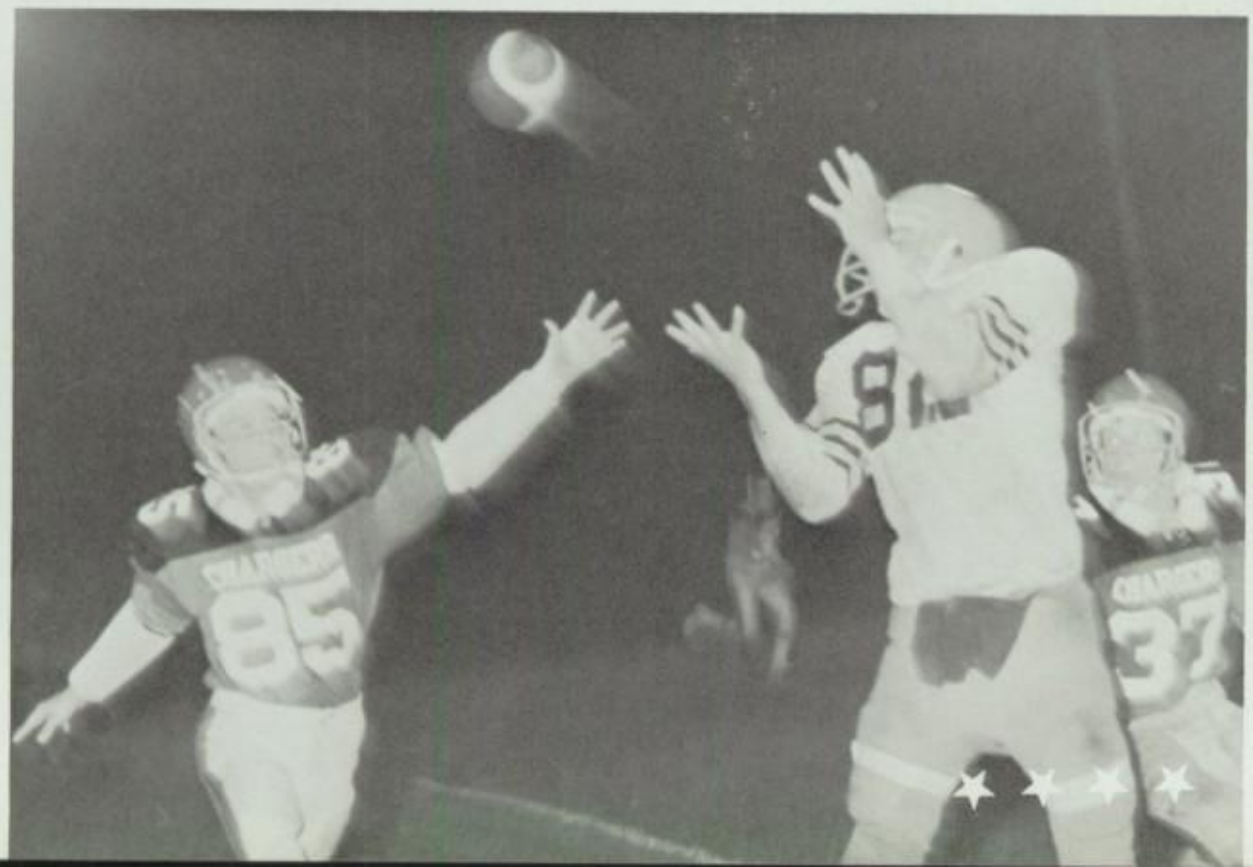
★ Row 1 — Tim Breniser, Greg Hostetler, Lee Kauffman, Jerry Hawkins, Ken Nisoley, Jim Spiecher, Ted Groff, Jim Bitting, Steve Savage, John Miller. Row 2 — Larry Shroyer, Tom Coy, Rick Troyer, Mike Clawson, Matt Morehouse, Kent Sommers, Gary Dausman, Lynn Mascarenas, Richard Louden, Anthony Collier. Row 3 — Dave Hostetler, Rob Kirkdorffer, Rick Erb, Tony Hanes, Todd Cripe, Ron Culp, Jim Skibbe, Mark Hofer, Eric Graham, Keith Miller. Row 4 — Harold Holler, Brent Leatherman, Mark Lantz, Troy Snider, Steve Lantz, Mark Beer, Tom Wilhelm, Jeff Miller. Row 5 — Marty Gall, Eric Staton, Nathan Zollinger, Leonard Emery, Mr. Weaver, Mr. Kidder, Mr. Hollinger.





★★ Is everybody ready?

★★★★ Ted Groff reaches for a pass over his opponent.

JODY SHOWALTER WINS THE CROWN!

Jody Showalter was combination Homecoming Queen and birthday girl this year as she won out over Brenda Wine and Laverda Riegsecker. Jody's escort was Rex Sheeley, Brenda's = Tom Love, and Vert's = Scott Snider.

The Riley Queen and King crownings wound up Sunshine Week. Queen was Kim Miller and King was Greg Hostetler.

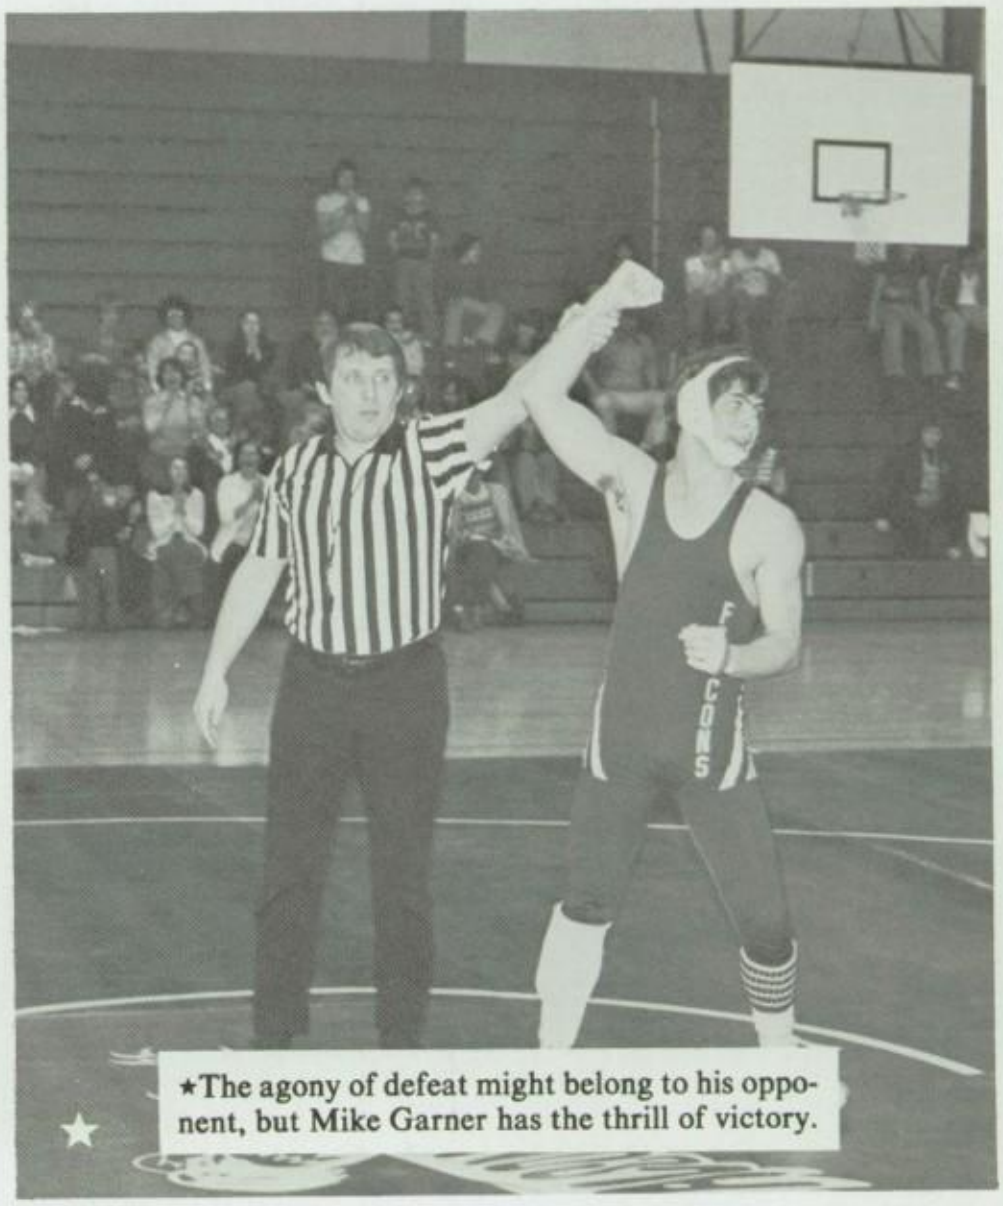
PIN EM', STICK 'EM, NAIL 'EM TO THE FLOOR.

Mr. Weavers "pinners" wrestled to a 3-1-4 season this year. They had a good showing in the tourneys and sectionals the team entered and for the second time in history had a wrestler, Senior John Miller, go to semi-state. Goshen and Northwood tourney winners were: Paul O'Bryant, also a sectional champ and he placed third at Regional; John Miller who placed second at Sectional and Regional and then went on to State Semi-finals.

Award winners were: Paul O'Bryant-MVP; Dave Hostetler-Take Down Efficiency; and Mike Garner — Most Pins. Mr. Van Lue was the new junior-varsity coach.



★The agony of defeat might belong to his opponent, but Mike Garner has the thrill of victory.

GERRY TROYER — MVP AND ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

INJURIES CUT INTO PITCHING DEPTH

★ $&&#(&%-$"*&$##&$' Missed again.
★★ Phil Borntrager pitches one of his world famous high balls.
★★★ Jim Speicher watches intently to try to make a steal.
★★★★ Alright guys we finally won, let's go out for a pizza.
★★★★★ Doug Wogaman keeps a steady eye on the ball.

After a trying season the baseball team placed a hard fought for 2nd in the sectional. Jim Speicher was awarded MVP and the batting average award. Marty Lantz got MIP and the Golden Glove award. The 3-19 season didn't look good but after defeating the Bethany Braves in the bottom of the last inning they fought a hard battle against Jimtown and were defeated. They had many injuries this year that hurt the pitching staff. They went to two freshmens, Dennis Kauffman and Phil Bontrager to relieve Jim Speicher. The record may not have been too impressive but the fans really turned out at sectional to cheer the Falcons on.

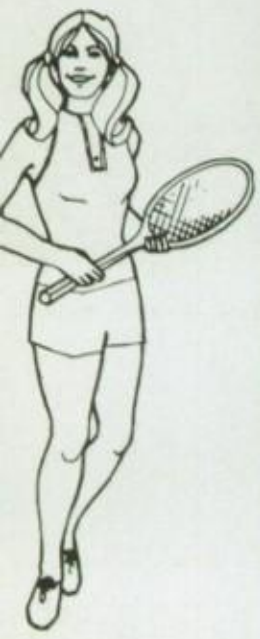
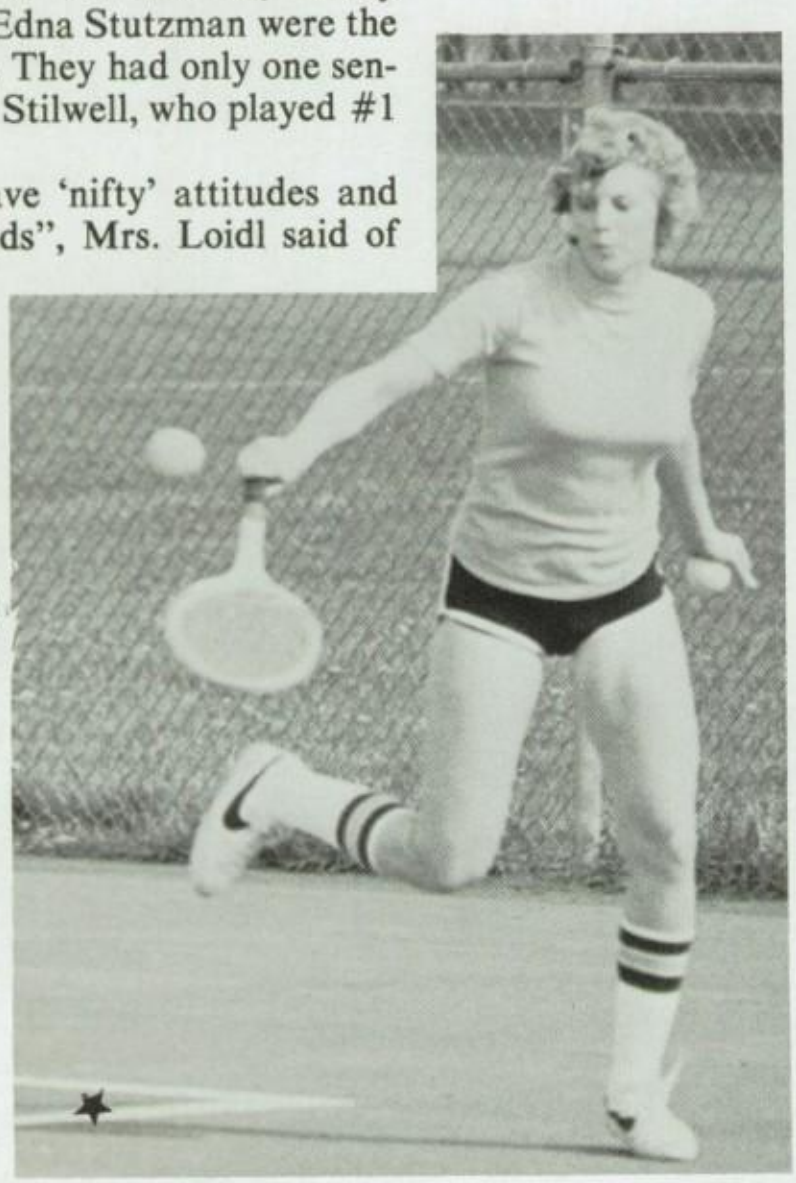
GIRLS' TENNIS HAS GOOD FIRST YEAR.

Girls tennis' first year ended with a 2-5 season, but coach Loidl said she points to that with pride because Goshen's first season had no wins.

Most Improved was Diane Kammerdiener; Most Valuable, Kim Burger; and Best Mental Attitude, Betty Huitema. Diane and Kim made up the #1 doubles, Kathy Miller and Edna Stutzman were the #2 doubles. They had only one senior, Nadine Stilwell, who played #1 singles.

"They have 'nifty' attitudes and are good kids", Mrs. Loidl said of her team.





★ Kim Burger, one half of the 1st seed doubles chases the elosive fuzzy ball.
★★ Penny Kauffman must really be concentrating on returning the ball and she almost has it.
★★★ Number one singles player Nadine Stilwell seems to think her tongue helps her return the ball.

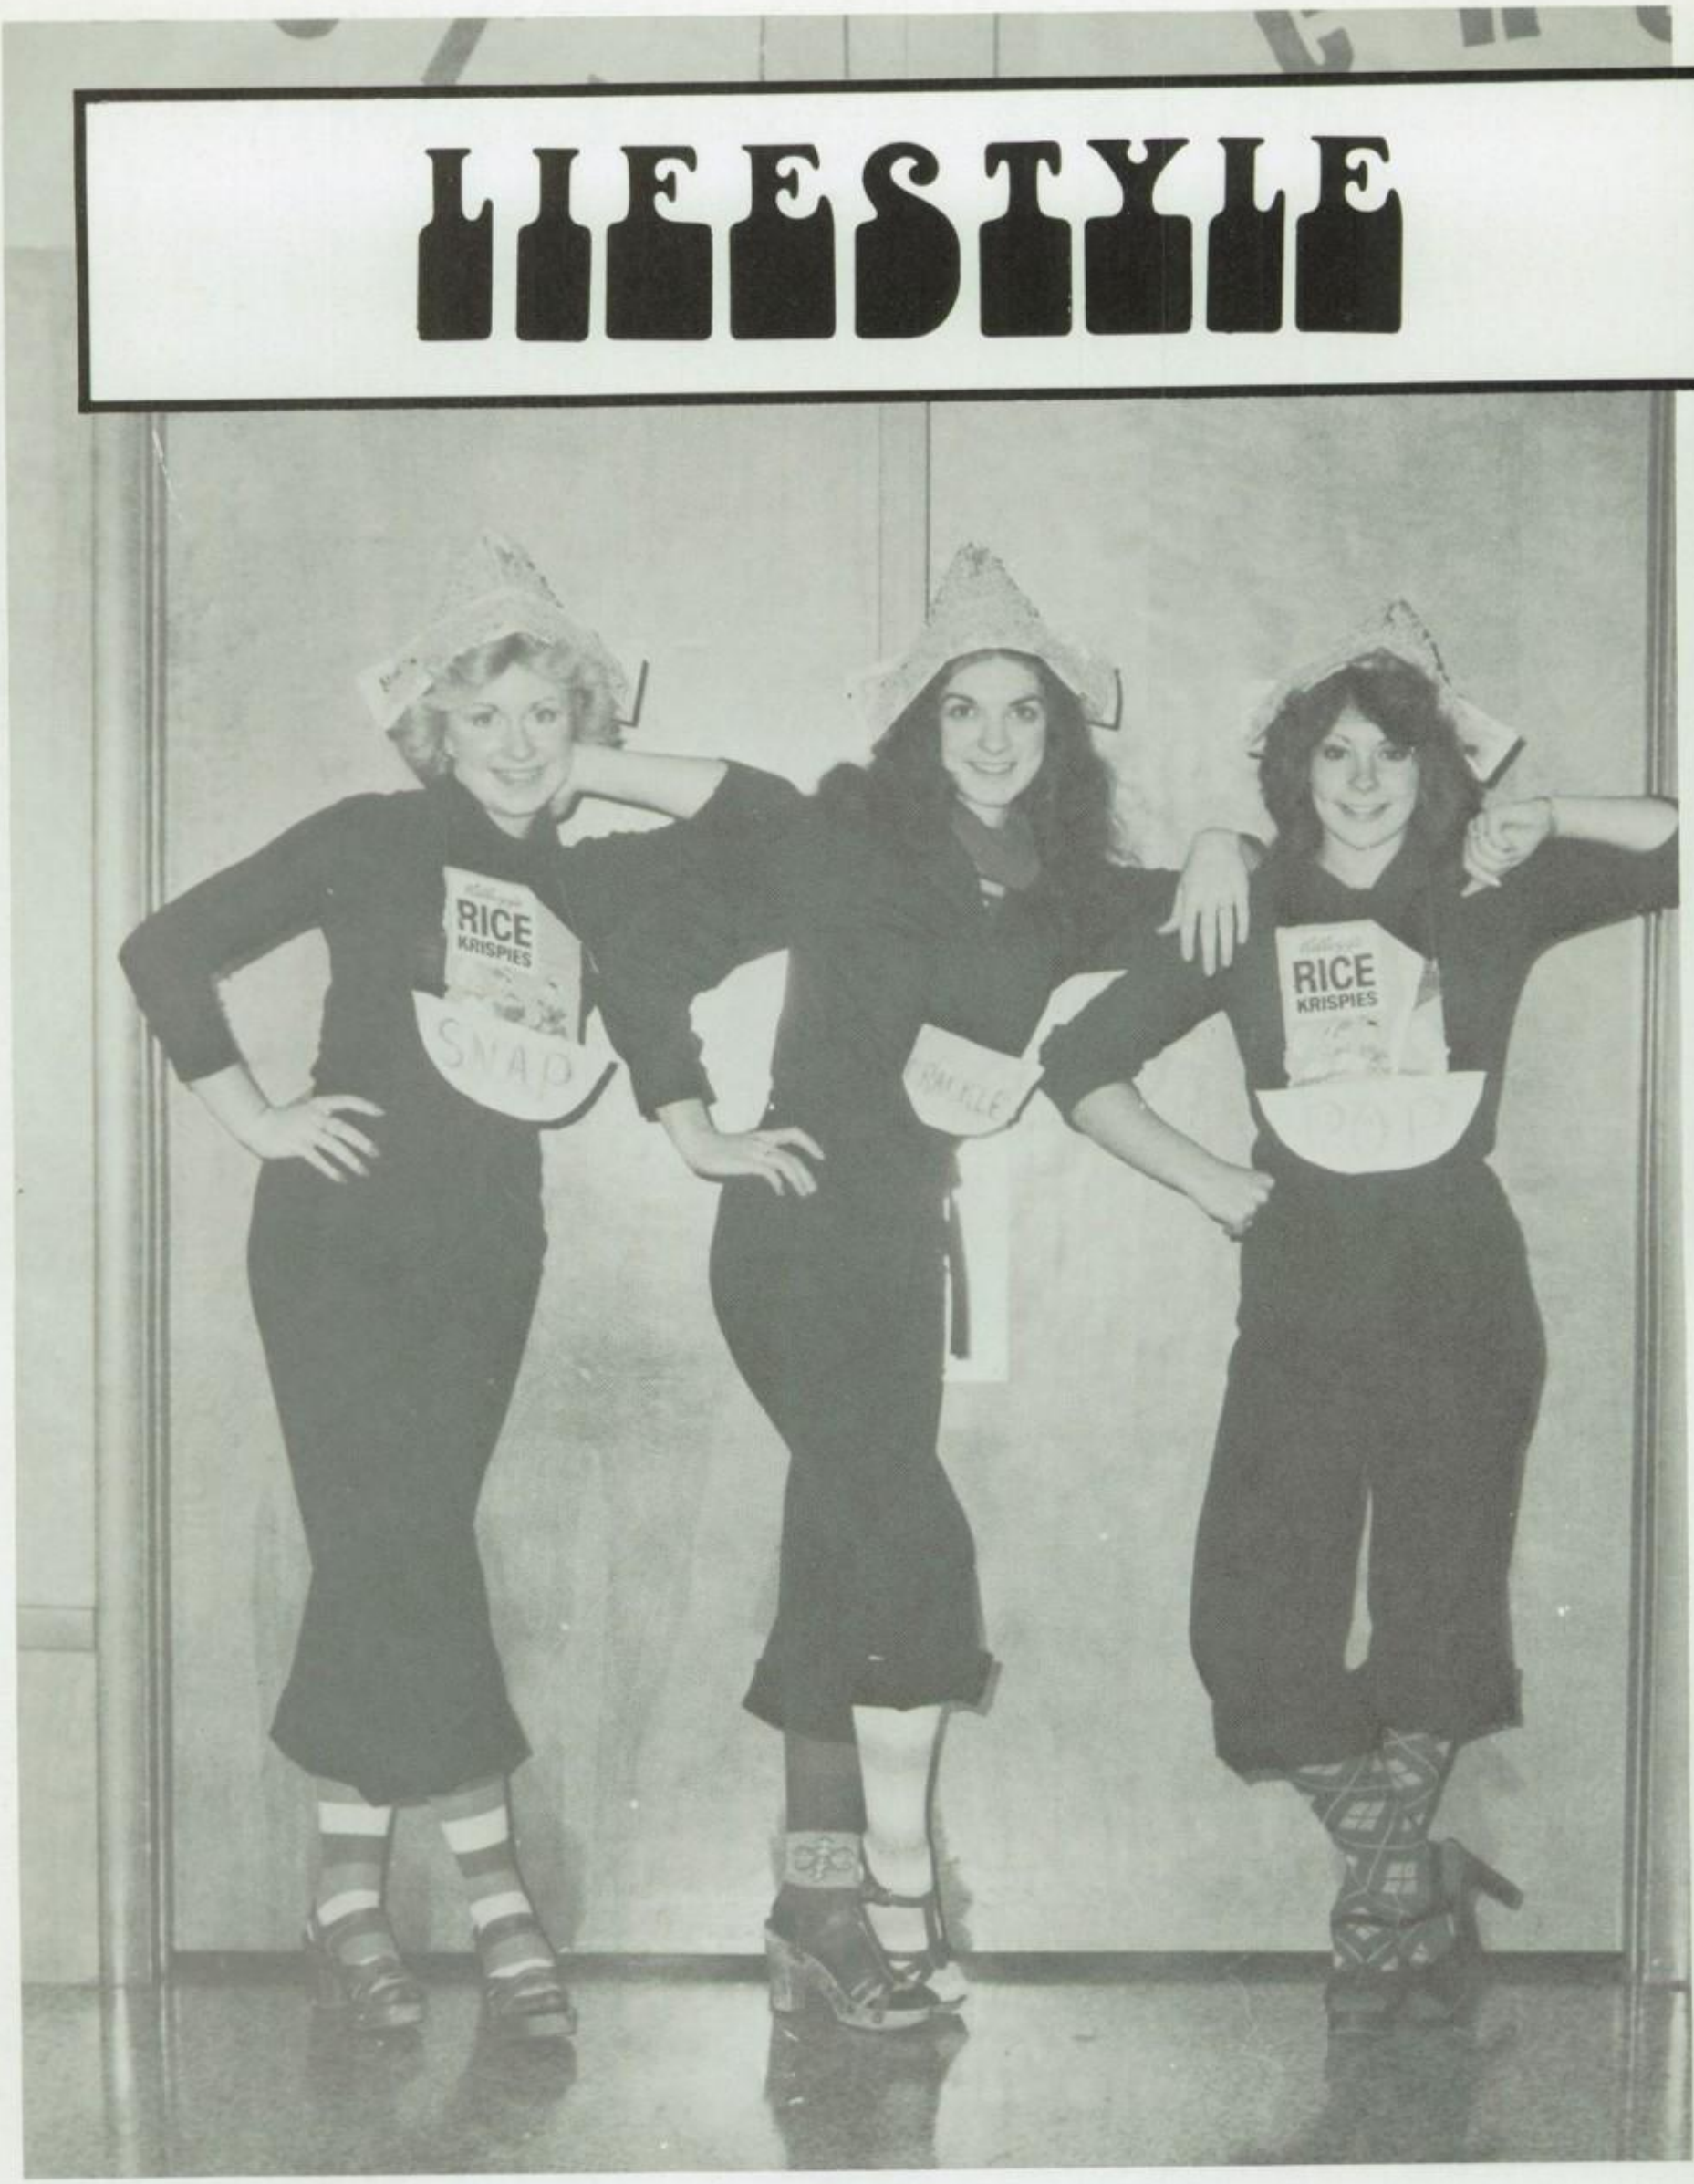
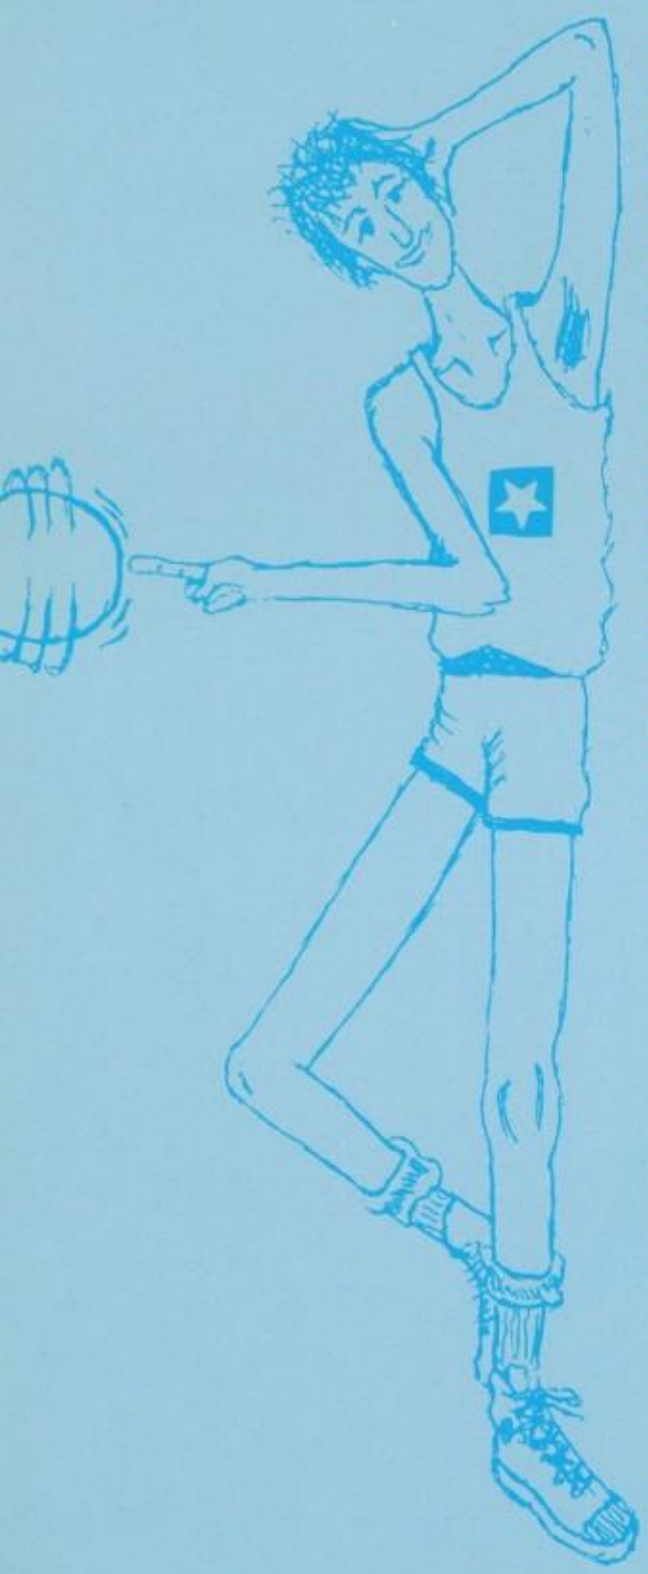
LIFESTYLE



STAYING ALIVE AT F.H.S.

The Falcons are the superstars of Fairfield High School, but to be referred to as a superstar by millons of people is quite a different matter. This lady has the honor, she is one of the top actresses and vocalists of this year. Her latest role was Ester Hoffman in the movie "A Star Is Born", and truly she is a star, a superstar.



What if . . .

. . . everybody parked between the yellow lines.

. . . Mr. Weaver had an advancing hairline.

. . . everyone really knew what the mystery meat was on the cafeteria trays.

. . . everyone liked their school pictures

. . . the kids in the back of the room were quiet and behaved themselves.

. . . you could stay awake during a filmstrip.

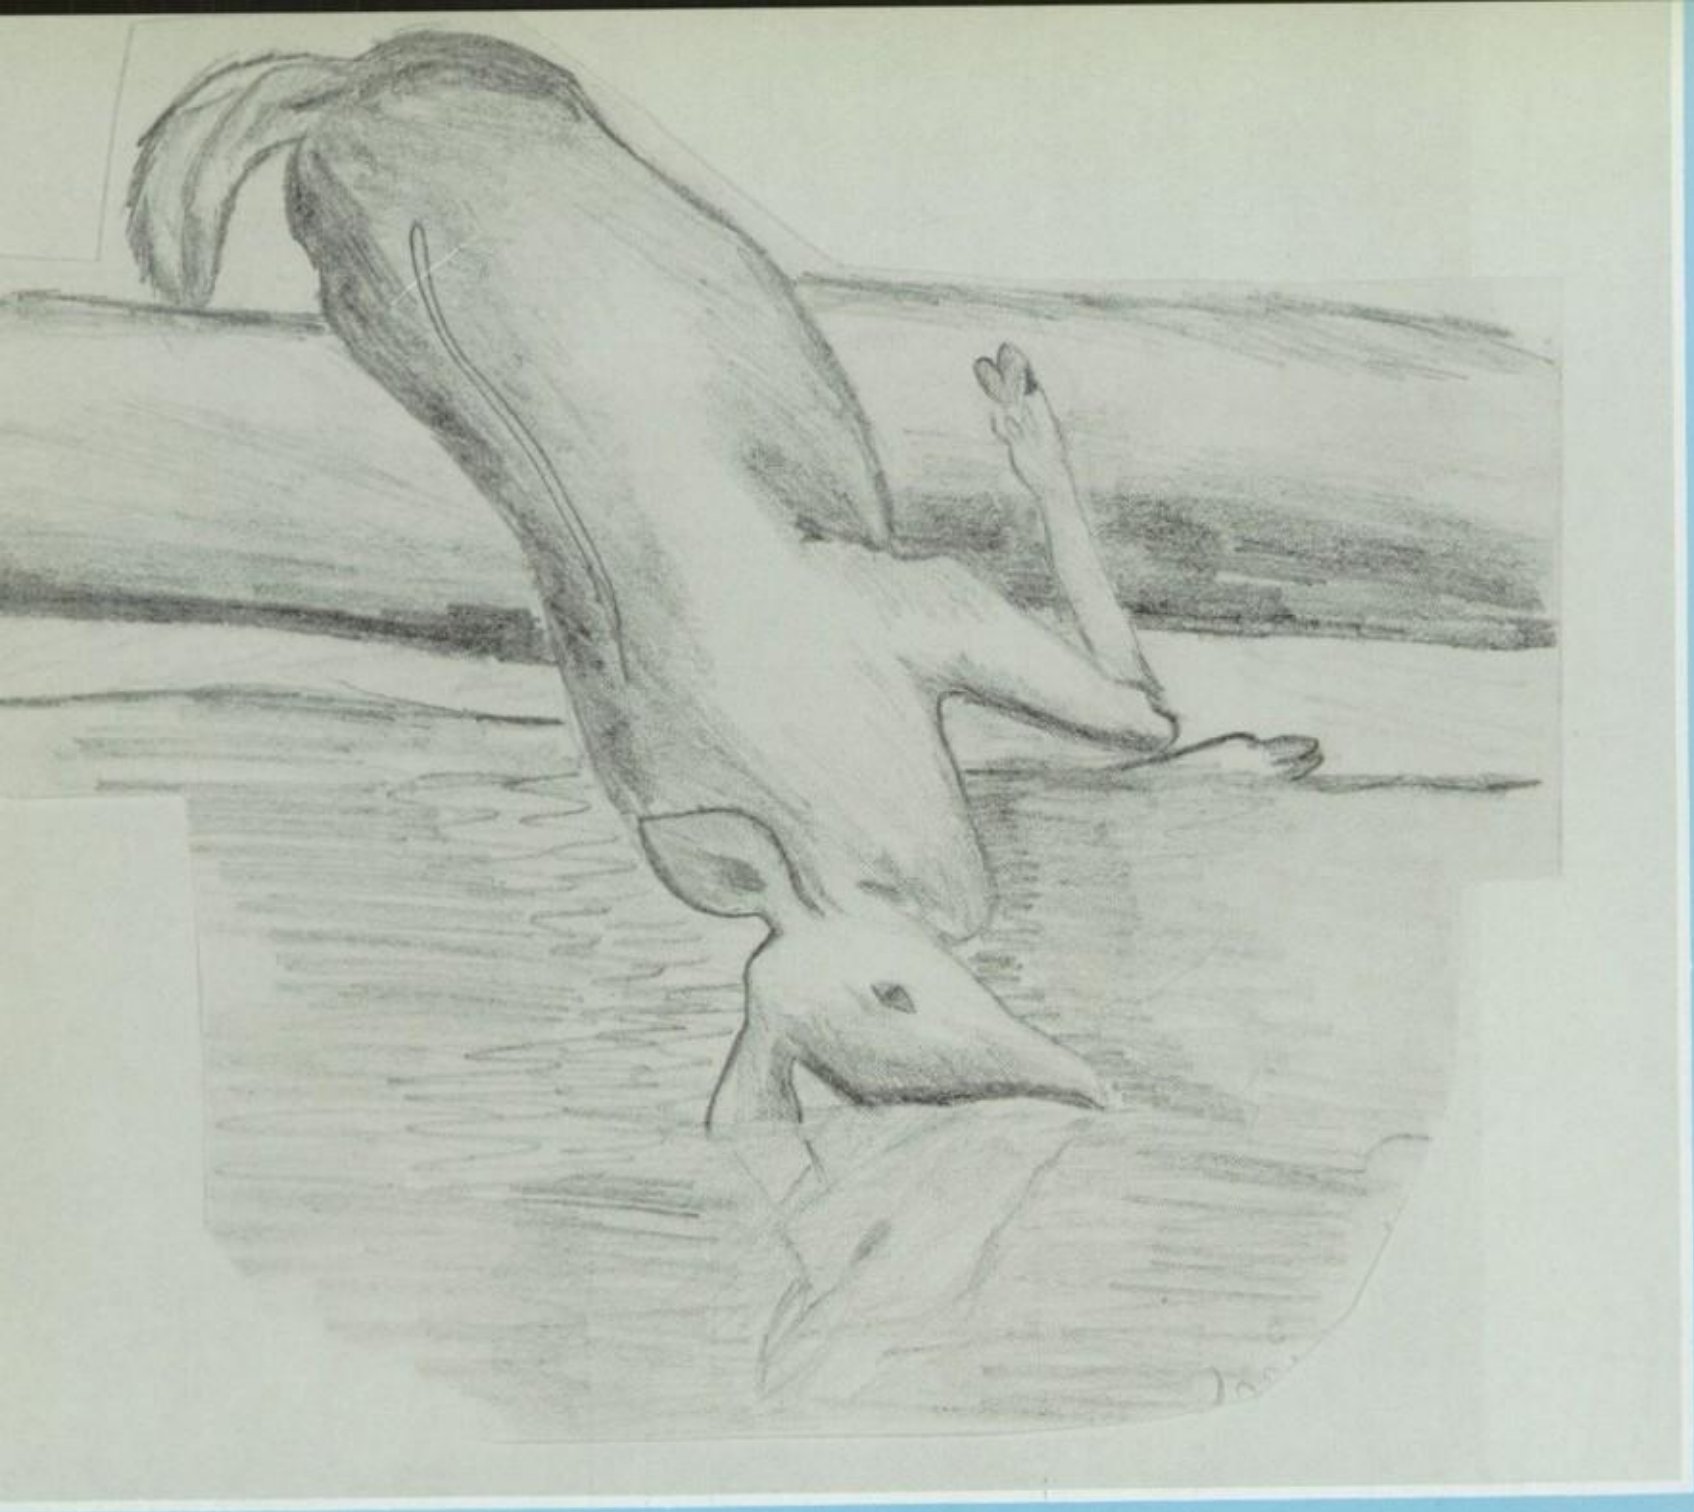
MAY THE FORCE BE WITH YOU



Poem

Poor exhausted doe.
The water was so cool,
And she, flaming like fire
From the hunter's chase,
Took one final drink,
Landing in the water,
And gazed down at the Reflection of her face.
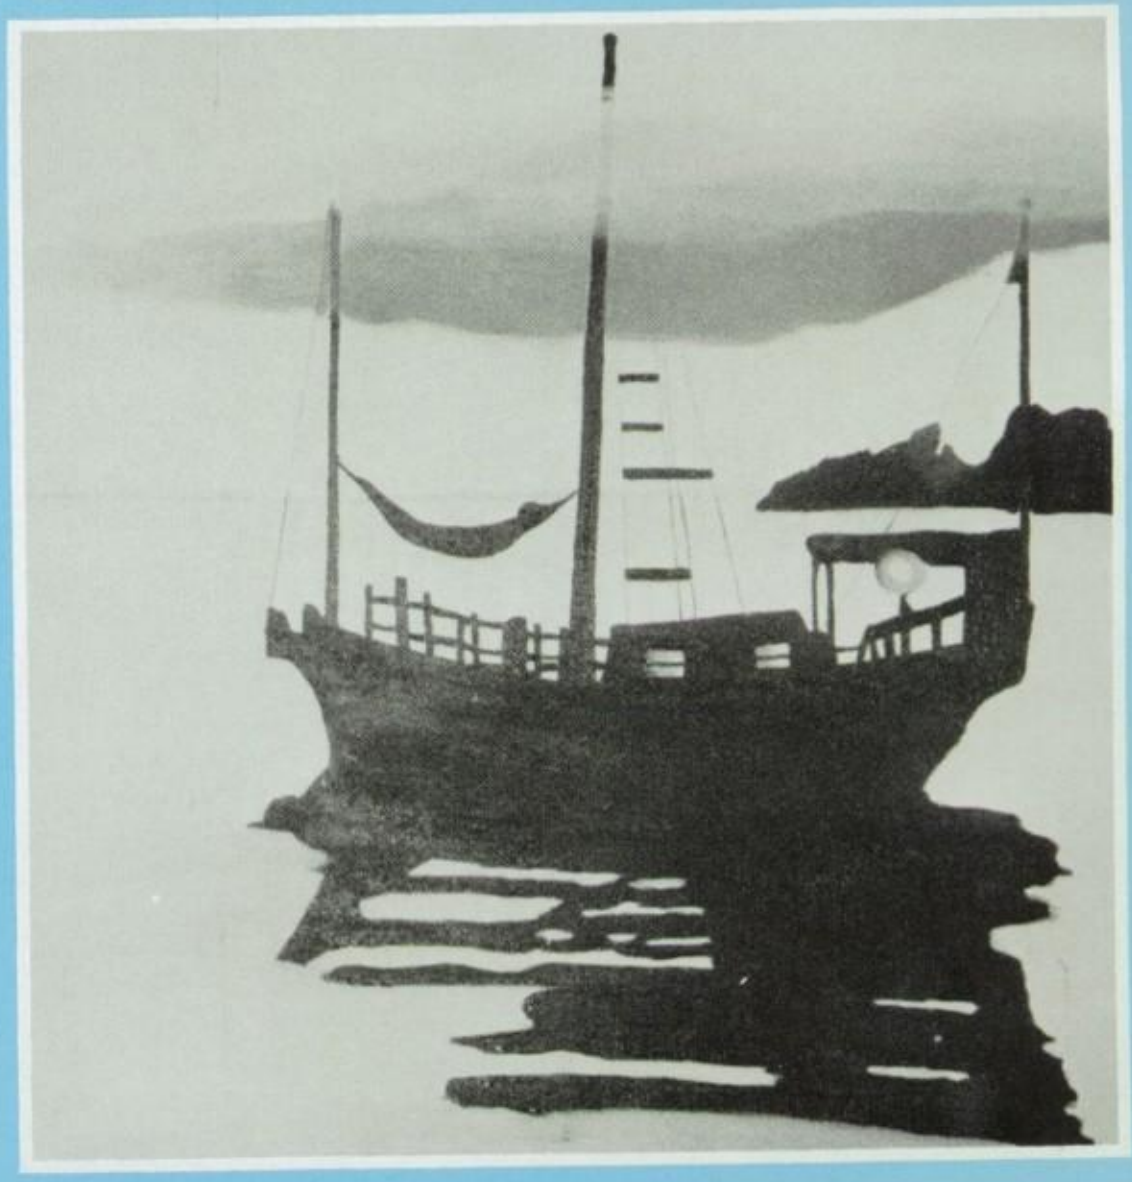
— K.R.



We each have a life other than school. Some; are involved in extra-curricular activities, some have a job, and some go home to family and friends, but we all come together every week day and experience learning, laughter, and unity. We have had some difficult times, but the students here at F.H.S. are definitely making it and Stayin' Alive.

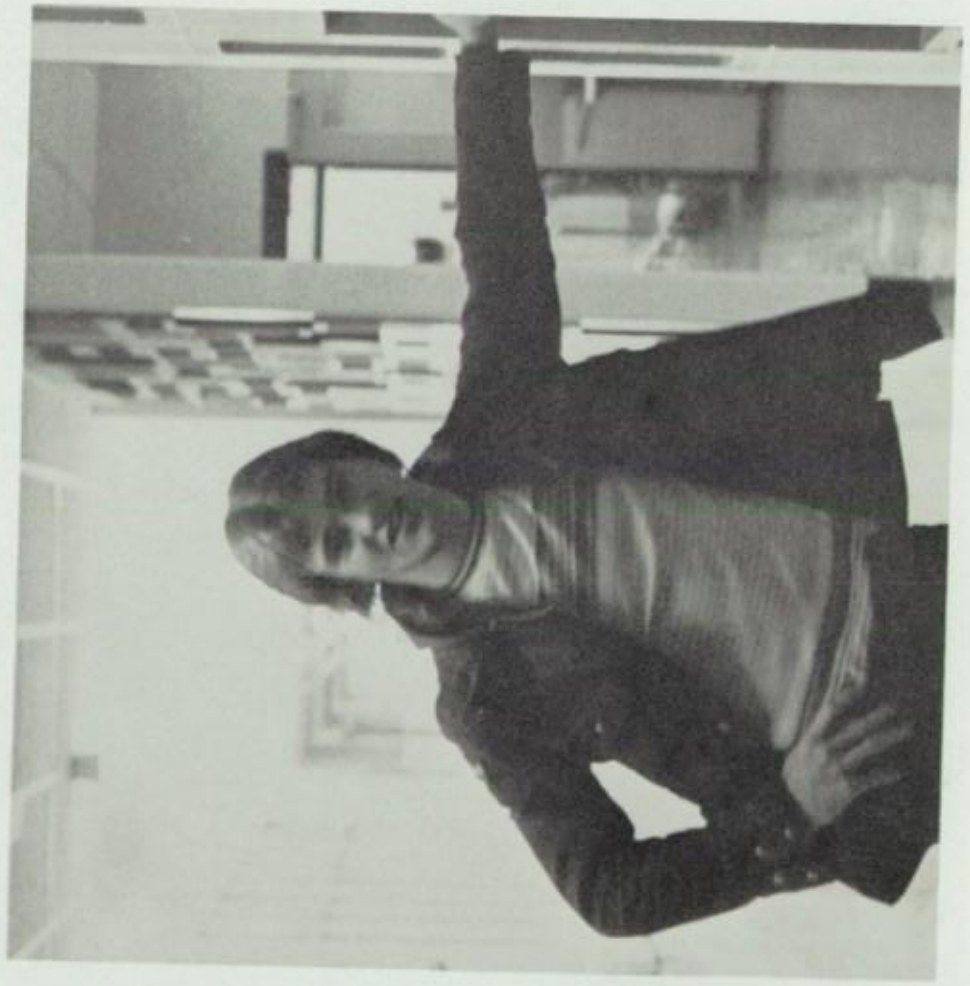
GETTING INVOLVED AT E.H.S.



PIZZA HUT — HERE WE COME!

This years swing choir (the Reflections) got to be real well known around the Goshen area such as at Pizza Hut, Pizza Inn, Burger Chef, etc . . . You could always tell who they were in town because they were all dressed alike and they really stood out in a crowd.

The Reflections were a dressier group this year, in black with their ruffled shirts, velvet bow ties and bow blouses. This year they performed for the Humi Awards and they had a LONG variety show. Some of the favorite songs were Daybreak, American Bandstand, Selections from the Wiz and for their church services, Do Lord.

★ The kids in Swing Choir really get into the act with "Selections from the Wiz."
★★ Fairfield Reflections "EASE ON DOWN THE ROAD".
★★★ Barry Manilow made it big with the Swing Choir as they sang one of his hit songs, "American Bandstand".
★★★★ 1978 Fairfield Reflections

TO THE REAR MARCH!

The marching band this year got new gloves! They under the "guiding eye" of Mr. Saddler and drum major Chris Staton. The band participated in a contest at Concord and added a color guard. They marched in numerous parades including the Corn School parade, and the Fireman's parade. All the yelling and shouting, practice and sore feet and ears from listening to "keep your knees up" must have done a lot of good because the band really looked good.

★ The Pom Pon squad added much Color to the marching band.
★★ Keeping the "Um-pah" tempo is Betty Huitema.
★★★ Scott Peters strains on one of the higher notes.
★★★★ Drum Major Chris Staton surveys the troops.

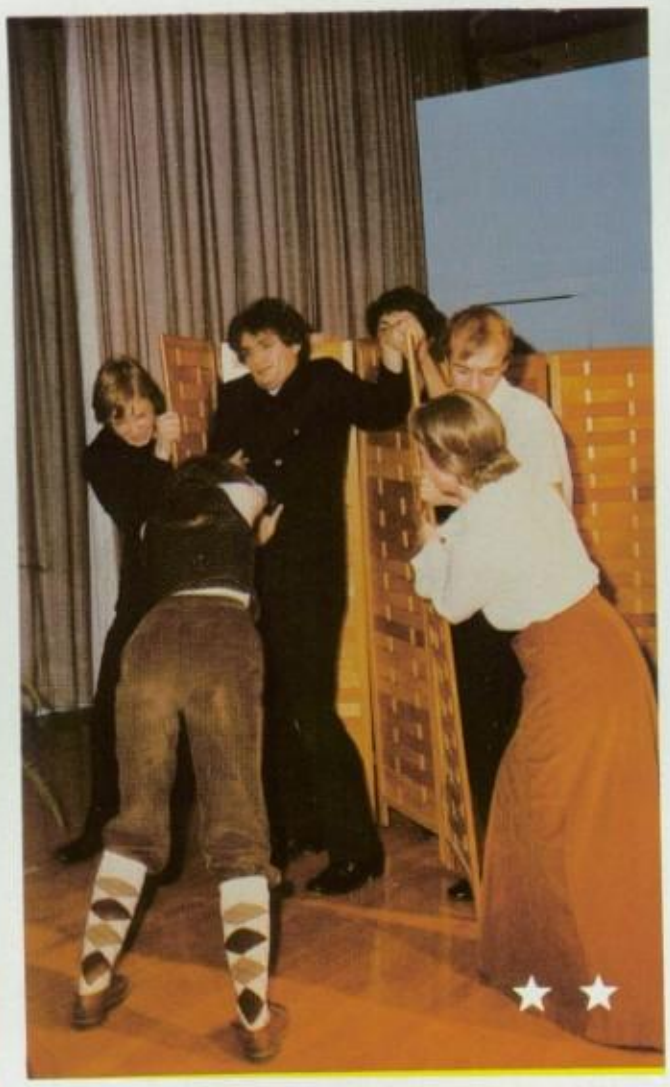
LIGHTS, CAMERA, ACTION!

The "Matchmaker" was the drama presentation this year at Fairfield. A superb last performance was given by seniors Melody Lantz (Mrs. Dolly Levi) and Dennis Kesler (Horace Vandergelder) who were the two main characters in Thomton Wilder's play. Others contributing their talents were Tim Steele and Andrea Jacques — as Cornelius Hackl and Barnaby Tucker, Chris Staton as Malachi Stack and Mark Igney as Ambrose — Kemper.



★ "Now listen here Johnny, if I told you once, I told you a thousand times . . ."
★★ Malachi always seemed to be in the road. Especially when he was drunk.
★★★ "How about some cookies?" says Miss Van Huysen (Loretta Miller).
★★★★ Dolly Levi and Ermengarde confront Ambrose Kemper with the question "Can we eat now?"

OH YUCK! MORE MAKE-UP!

★ Mr. Saddler and the Pit Band did a super job this year. Next year Mr. Saddler is going to star and co-star in the musical "Hello Dolly". He's going to attempt to do the whole thing by himself!
★★ "Here we go round the merry-go-round . . ." Riding the Carousel took much talent and skill to ride.
★★★ Our Two little? ballerinas were the life of the party. They kept everyone laughing backstage.
★★★★ Mark snuck in a "quick one" while Peg wasn't looking. He Better not get caught!

TS CLAMBAKE TIME!

The musical production this year was "Carousel". It starred Mark Igney as Billy Bigelow. He fell in love with Julie Jordan (Anita Sommers). Julie's best friend is Carrie (Cindy Gall) and she is engaged to Enoch Snow (Dennis Kesler). Billy has a best friend too ... Jigger (Scott Peters).

Some of the other major roles were Nettie (Denise Brookins), Louise (Kathy Bowman), Mr. Bascomb (Nathan Borntrager) and Mrs. Millins (Gail Daulman).

The musical played for three nights and the pit band was there with Chris Staton at the piano. Directors were Mr. Saddler and Mrs. Craven.

★★ "Oh! Hello Enoch!" Jigger Craigin was trying to carry Carrie into the woods just as Enoch walked in.

★★★ "June is Bustin Out All Over," sings Nettie Fowler and the chorus.

★★★★ Tim Breniser and Nathan Bontrager are all ready to go to the prom, so go get 'em girls!

★★★★★ Lee Kauffman and Kathy Bowman do a ballet during the play. Next year they will be starring in the "Nutcracker Suite".

BEHIND THE SCENES

What has the ability to really make you — you FEEL during a play — or musical? The special effort given to lighting, props, staging and costumes and make-up. Most of this is due to the work done by the crews. Someone has to run the light box, find the props and costumes and then design the scenery, staging and put on EVERYONES make-up. They got a lot of help from the cosmotology girls with the juniors doing make-up and the seniors doing hair styles.

WHAT DOES STAMP CLUB, MATH — SCIENCE, AND FHA HAVE IN

Why does the Math Science Club have meetings? To play games! Well, they say they are "educational" games and puzzles. This years' officers are President Dan Sark and combination Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer John Uryga. They are led by Mr. Dallman and Mr. Detwiler.

The Stamp Club is headed up by Miss B. with officers Kevin Kauffman, President; Tim Steele, Vice-President; and Secretary, Chris Staton. They trade, buy and sell stamps besides discussing new stamps and organizing them in their books.

COMMON? NOTHING, ABSOLUTLY NOTHING!!

To be in these three clubs you need calculators, stamps, and pots and pans. They make scientific discoveries, find, buy, and sell rare old stamps, and burn food. They don't really burn food but some strange smells floating down the halls!

★ Lisa Schmucker shows her talent at chopping onions.
★★ Mary Culp and Sue Shepler really know how to dress up a chicken.

FFA GETS NEW ADVISOR

FFA had to adjust to a big change this year. A new Ag. teacher who was also the new advisor. Mr. Marvin Houin had double-trouble this year. He was advisor for the chapter and District advisor too!

This year's officers were: President, Leonard Emery; Vice-President, Steve Savage; Secretary, Jill Burtsfield; Treasurer, Brett Whitehead; Reporter, Doug Bowman and Sentinel, Tim Stiver. They had a slave auction, sold seeds and had their annual banquet to recognize the work done and accomplishments given to the members of the chapter. Some of the awards were: Star Senior, Leonard Emery; DeKalb Award, Tim Stiver; Star Junior, Matt Morehouse; Star Sophomore, Marty Gall; Star Freshman, Mark Slabaugh. Top Scholarship award went to Dan Armbruster and Brett Whitehead won the All-Activity award.

This year's slave sale raised $1,700.00 for the chapter.

It looks as if Mr. Houin is all broke in and going strong.

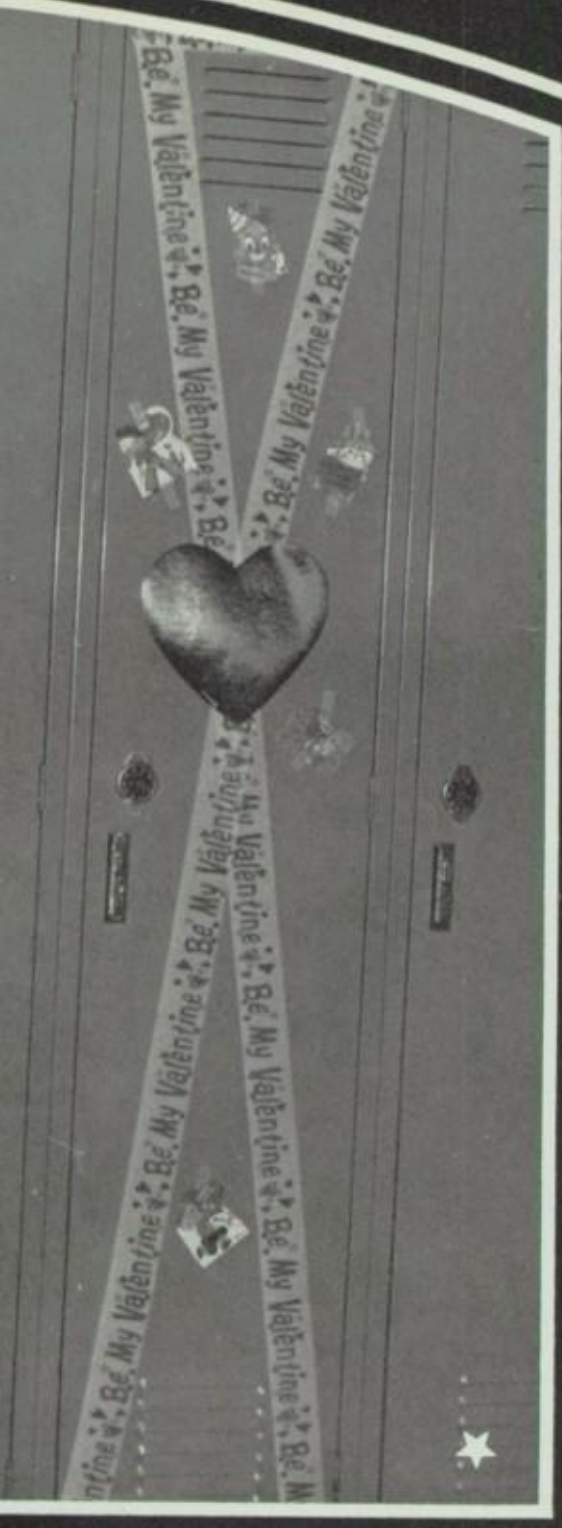
IN YOUR LIFE



Fairfield's Sunshine Society was named as an Honorary Chapter at State Convention this year. Convention was held at Carmel High School and the 11 girls that attended heard Mrs. Marvella Bayh speak for the Cancer Society.

Sunshine officers were: President, Margaret Hein; Vice-President, Denise Brookins; Recording Secretary, Kim Linn; Corresponding Secretary, Gail Dausman; Treasurer, Lori Rockenbaugh; and Historian Elise Rose.

They tried something new this year; Daddy Date Night and named a Sunshine Man of the year, Maro Myers. Installation of officers was done at the Ideal Ladies Tea and the donation to Riley Children's Hospital was the highest amount ever given.

★ Val Pal day brought many decorated lockers to F.H.S.
★★ At State Sunshine Convention, Mrs. Marvella Bayh was the speaker.
★★★ These freshman girls got initiated into the S.S.S. by having to wear smiley-faces.
★★★★ The 1978 Mr. Sunshine, Maro Myers along with his daughter, Senior Becky Myers.

LIBRARY CLUB AND ITEA HELP OUT

Ever wonder what they learn in Library Club and ITEA? They learn to say SHhhhhhhhhh . . . ! Not really, the library club helps Mrs. Brandon and Mrs. Long keep the files straight, check out books and put them away. ITEA helps teachers in the school system grade papers and they get some experience in teaching. For a short time they sponsored movies on Thursdays for 10¢. They are sponsored by Mrs. Holden.

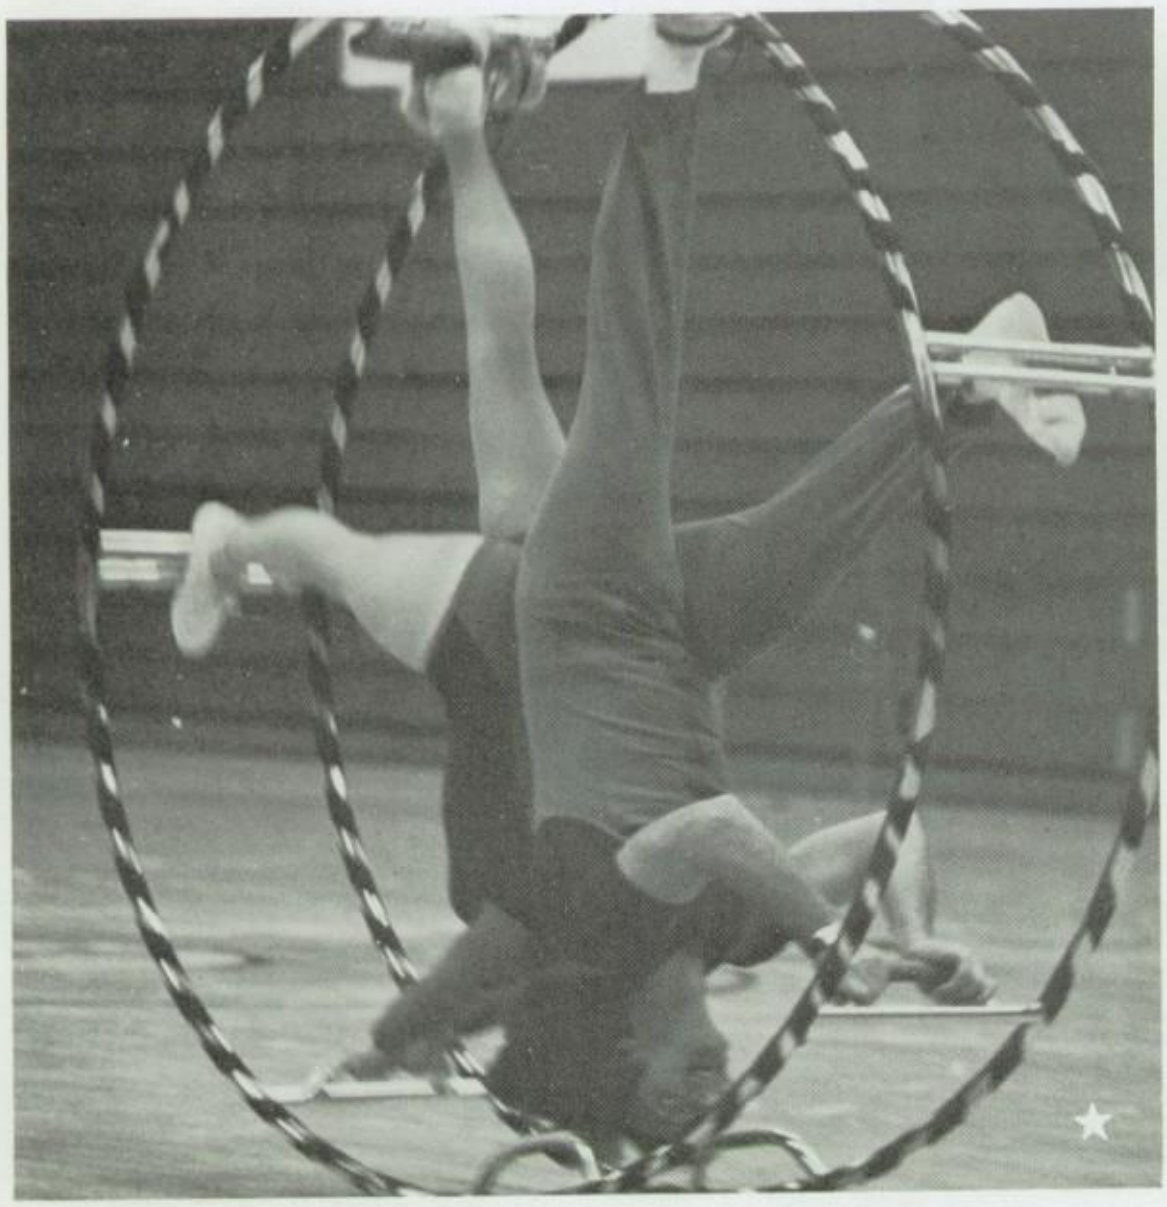
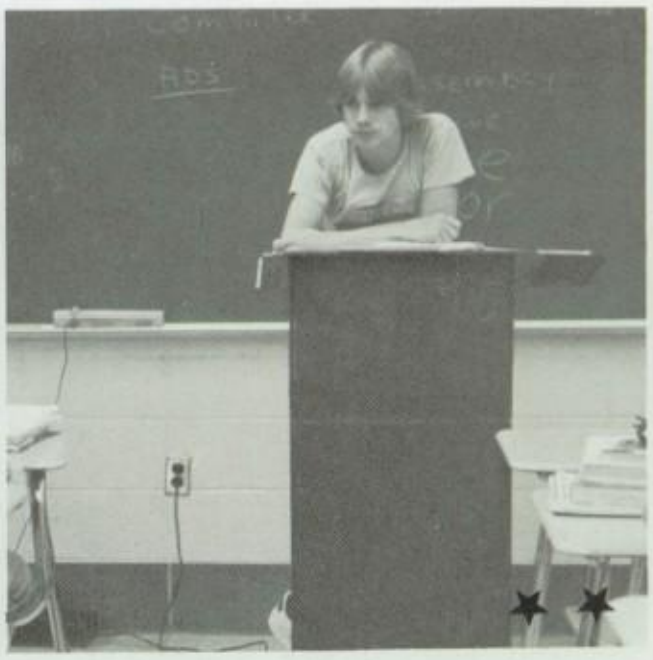
STUDENT COUNCIL: INTO EVERYTHING



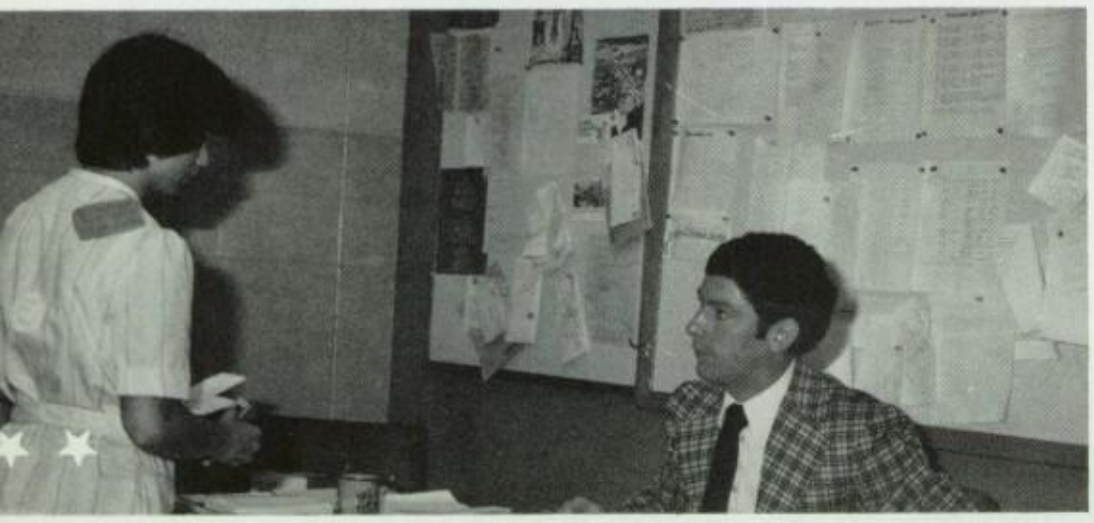


* Convocations sometimes went topy-turvy!
 President Terry Keim is forever listening to the representatives suggestions.
 1st row: P. Kauffman, sec; J. Gawthrop, Treas; R. Kelly, V.P.; T. Keim, pres.
2nd row: M. Miller, L. Miller, R. Marquart, C. Schrock, J. Erb, D. Miller, K. Miller, J. Burger, D. Yoder, J. Zollinger, B. Myers, K. Linn.
3rd row: R. Coy, A. Sommers, A. Collins, K. Gingerich, M. Fox, E. Stutzman, K. Weybright, J. Hawkins.
4th row: L. Rockenbaugh, G. Dausman, D. Burkholder, R. Beachy, M. Linn, K. Layman, J. Gawthrop, C. Staton, M. Hofer, and T. Coy.

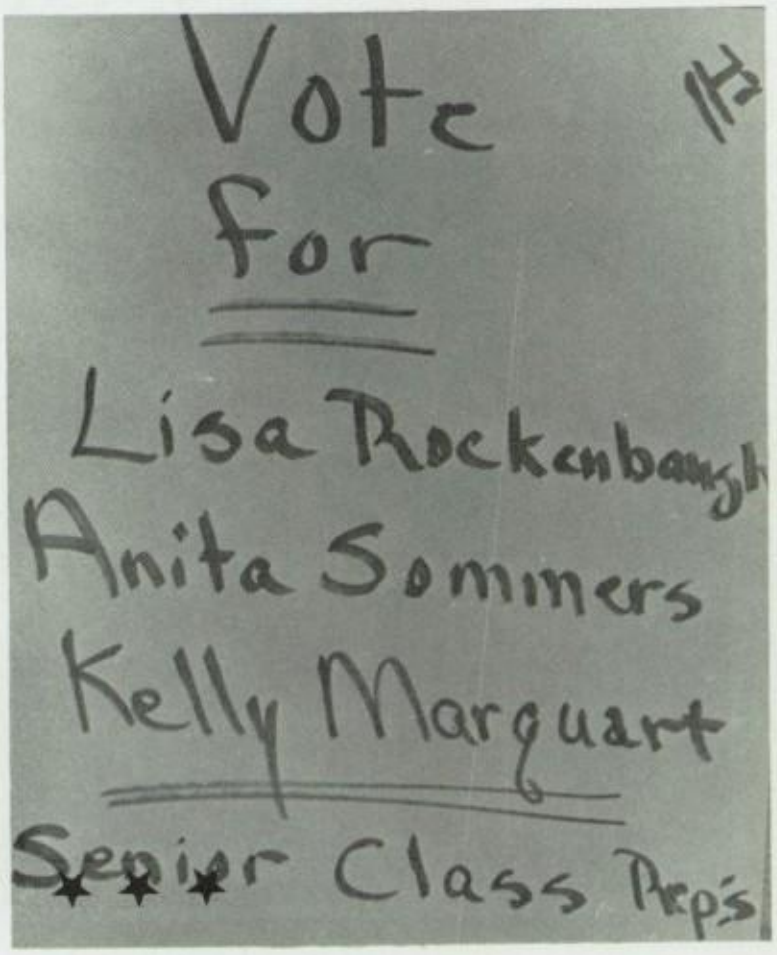
One of the major accomplishments Student Council made this year was a new constitution which included the new election procedures of campaining. They also decided on the points system for the officers elections. The goal of the student council was to get more student imput. They tried to do this by reading the minutes in homeroom and asking for feedback. Officers were President Terry Keim, Vice-President Randy Keim, Secretary Penny Kauffman, and Treasurer Jennifer Gawthrop. New advisors were Mr. Bushong and Mr. Saddler.

★ Campus Life was a real hit at the convocation they gave this year.
★★ A vice-principal? Mr. Bushong seems to get along with just about everybody!
★★★ Now what? Mary Beth Miller consults Kathy Gingerich while Tom Coy deciphers this one himself.
★★★★ Jama Gawthrop is getting into the Spirit by selling links for a spirit chain.

HEY, WHAT IS THIS?



★ Voting was a whole new thing this year. It almost made you feel like a real voter.
★★ Campaigning was fun this year. Dee Ann Miller shows how it can be done.
★★★ Posters, posters everywhere. Campaigning this year was one of the requirements for a student council position and it proved to be still competition.



The Talon — Bigger & Better Than Ever!

Editor of the Talon this year was Deb Fox. Because of her "connections" with the Mail Journal, the staff was able to get the paper on newsprint to give it that "professional look". The paper was usually also longer this year with better coverage of most subjects. Assisant Editor this year was Rita Dorhauer.

★ Newspaper members:
Sitting: Chris Staton, Deb Fox.
Standing: Dennis Kesler, Jesse Feil, Monte Cox, Glen Kerr, Rita Dorhauer, Judy Chalk, and Angie York.
★★ Dennis Kesler concentrates on his article to meet the deadline.

STUDENTS IN TO HEALTH!

Under the watchful eye of Mrs. Bowman this year's Medicorp accomplished many things. Many members did volunteer work at Goshen General Hospital and worked in the nurses office here at school. This year's officers were President, Kelli Beer, President Elect, Penny Postma, Secretary, Sherri Stapp, Treasurer, Brenda Borntrager; Delegate, Margaret Hein, and Alternate Delegate, Terri Nisley.

Four-year Awards, Gail Dausman; Senior award, Margaret Hein, Junior award, Penny Postma, Sophomore award, Brenda Borntrager and Freshman Award, Risa Rarick.

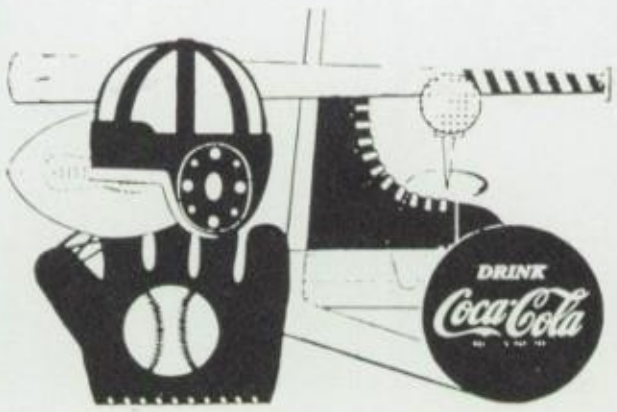
ATHLETIC CLUB

The Popcorn Pushers of Fairfield united under president Ted Groff this year. Athletic Club sold popcorn, cokes, coffee, hotdogs, candy bars, and other goodies at the home sports events this year. Other officers were Vice President Jim Speicher, Secretary Jesse Foil, Treasurer Cindy Clawson and Sarg. at Arms Jim Bitting and Greg Hostetler.



★ Renee Rose is trying to get the feeling for Football, hotdogs, Apple Pie and Chevrolet.
★★ Gary Dausman is "adding life" to some cute girl no doubt.

Pep Club and Pep Band

The Pep Band hit new heights this year with a new song, Gospel John with Kevin Kauffman on the Tim-Toms. It really created quite a sensation with the pep club, and the pep club and band worked together to make one of the loudest years ever in the history of Fairfield. The pep club could really grove to the beat of the pep band and the band yelled with the cheers. You could almost imagine it bouncing off the walls.

Row 2: Dennis Kesler, Jerry Tyson, Kevin Plank, Mark Pfiester, Amy Hettler, Gwen Smith, Tina Putman, Becky Reiger, Jenny Hinckley.

Cheerleaders

Sha—boom! Uh-huh! Right-on! This years cheerleaders had a lot of new cheers, the biggest pep club ever, guys for mounts at one game and more school spirit weeks all the time.

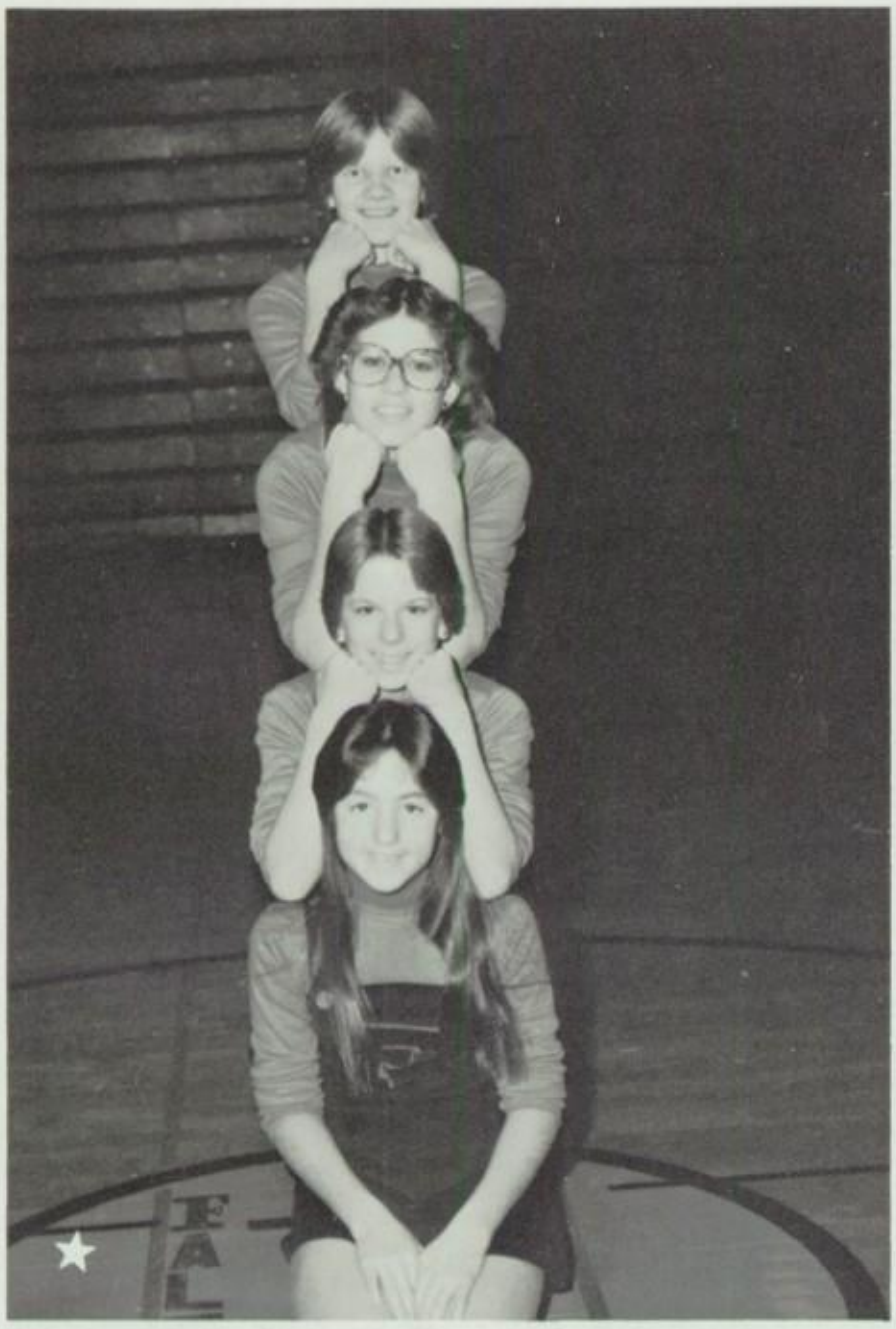
They had a rough time scheduling spirit weeks because of changing sectional times.

There were two spirit weeks giving everyone a chance to get into the act. There were the ever popular blue and gold days, Hee-Haw day, sunglasses day and a day of mourning for the Central Noble chargers when every body was supposed to wear black.

1 — Front: Jody Showalter, Jama Gawthrop. Back: Becky Myers, Kim Miller.

2 — Kathy Bowman and Kim Miller try to get fans into the School Song.

3 — Kay Miller, Jennifer Gawthrop, Kim Burger, Kathy Bowman.

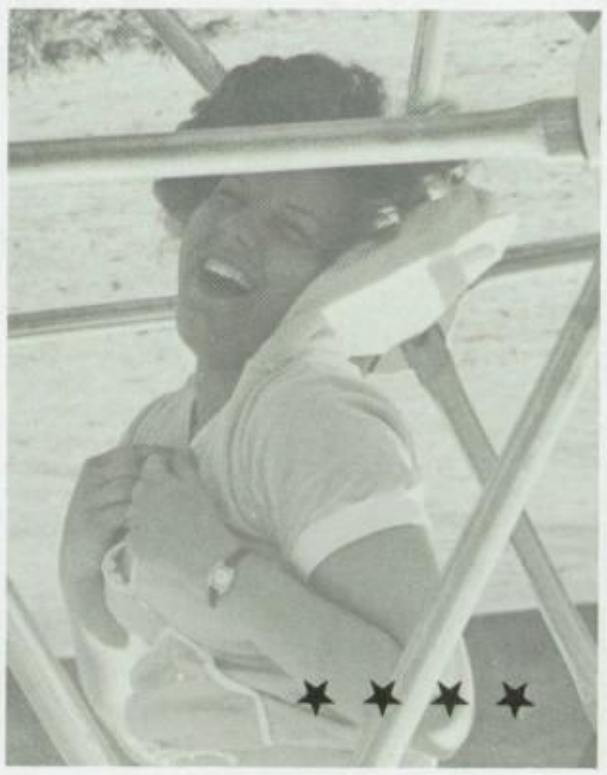


★ Kris Miller, Amy Geiger, Kyra Welty, Kim Weybright
★★ Suzy Kelly, Debbie Mundy, Pam Brookins, Jackie Yoder.
★★★ Vicki Rookstool, Becky Stutzman, DeeAnn Miller, Shelia Lewallen
★★★★ Jody gets excited as the scoreboard shows two more points.

YEARBOOK STAFF: WE WORKED . . .

Color, color, color, . . . that was the theme song of the yearbook staff this year. One of their main money making projects was the chicken bar-b-que on May 5th. With the help of some newspaper staffers and Doug Wogoman, Terry Keim, Jerry Hawkins, Steve Hooley, and parents, they Barbequed 900 halves of chicken. Since it rained, there were a few "muddy" incidents but every time the call went out to "turn 'em", everybody was always there.

Yearbooking is a combination of working, laughing, drawing layouts, giggling, writing copy, laughing, typing, eating pizza, pineapple, and cauliflower, and making long distance calls at Mr. Schroeders house, going to workshop and getting 13 hours of sleep for the whole week and laughing.



★ Margaret Hein is slip slidi' away.
★★ Alisa Hein and Penny Kauffman climb up up and away.
★★★ Caught in the goodesic monkey bars is Jean Zollinger.
★★★★ Denise Brookins is just hangin' around.

WE PLAYED . . . WE REMEMBERED.

★ Yearbook staff members are: Top to bottom:
Margaret Hein, Editor; Jean Zollinger, Copy; Penny Kauffman, Album; Cindy McCloskey, Activities; Benita Oiler, Sports; Denise Brookins, Academics; Alisa Hein, Ads; Dawn Schrock, Seniors; Keri Robertson, Opening and Division Pages.
★★ Cindy McCloskey thinks of the good times we've had during the year with the yearbook.
★★★ Jerry Hawkins & Mr. Schroeder concentrate on turning the chicken during our chicken Bar-B-Que.
★★★★ 3 Senior Members this year were Benita Oiler, Keri Robertson, & Dawn Schrock

"I found my thrill, on Blueberry Hill . . ." the juniors celebrated the last few weeks of school with a simulation game of the greasy fifties. They dressed like the fifties, talked like the fifties and acted like the fifties. On the days of the sock hops they showed up in full drag with the pony tails, bobby socks, greased hair and rolled up sleeved tee-shirts.

Mr. Harvey, Mr. Saddler and Miss "B" were the experts for the simulation and they recruited Mrs. Weaver for help at the sock hops to demonstrate dances with Mr. Harvey.

"Now since my baby left me, I found a new place to dwell, it's down on the end of lonely street and it's Heartbreak Hotel . . ." The songs of the fifties lived on and found a new fan club. One day in large group was devoted to rock-n-roll and another day was the sock hop. Now the juniors are self-appointed experts on the music, clothes, dances and language of the fifties and they were the participants in a learning experience they'll never forget.

★★ Greasers unite! M. Lantz, T. Linn, D. Miller and B. Stutzman stand for "grease for Peace".
★★★ The 3rd and 4th med Large Group watches Mr. Harvey and Mrs. Weaver while they dance to the music!
★★★★ Demonstrating the Jitterbug seems to be one of Mr. Harveys favorites.

★ The juniors know how to Bunny Hop to happiness.

★★ Slow-dances were a favorite, even Mr. Weaver got into the act (behind Mrs. Weaver's back.)

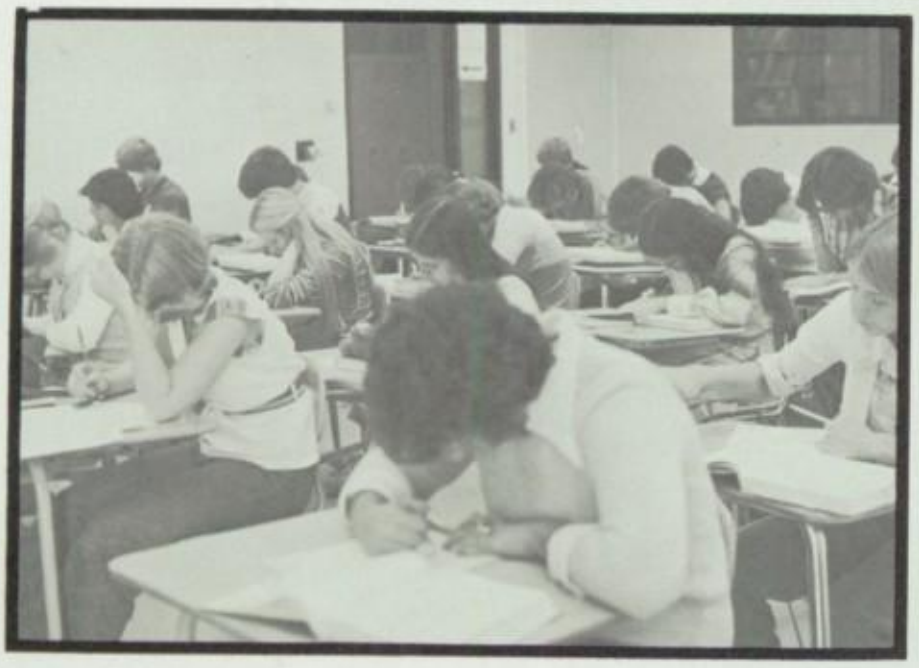
★★★ "I give it a 95 'cause its got a good beat and it's easy to dance to."

★★★★Tracey Miller, Regina Yoder, and Carolyn Kauffman must think something is funny. Maybe it's Regina's N.P. sweater.

★★★★★ Counting Brownie Points, Miss B.?

ONE FOR ALL AND ALL FOR ONE

FOR ONE



Just like the Musketeers, the Falcon team huddle symbolized the enduring spirit of our school. Teamwork, sportsmanship, togetherness, it all comes down to close friendship and a mutual caring for one another. Whether in the huddle or just livin' the day to day life with classmates, it was always all for one and one for all.

A NEW EXPERIENCE

The 7th grade always has to adjust to a big change. In the 6th grade they're the oldest and then they go to the High School and become the youngest. They have locker problems (besides remembering all their combinations), they have trouble remembering their schedule, finding rooms and just plain adjusting. There were even twice as many to get used to in their class let alone the whole school. Jr. High students have the least flexable schedules with the only elective being Band.

★ Sheila Myers and Emily Charvat give the "V" sign.

When you line up all the seventh graders one person sticks out — Jackie Yoder. At 5'9" Jackie is the tallest girl in the seventh grade.

She says she gets a lot of comments on her height, the most common one is "Boy, are you tall!"

Jackie could only find one main advantage of her height, she said she can look over other people in crowds and find the person she's looking for. She said she really likes her height and she couldn't find any disadvantages of being that tall.

She's a lot taller than most of her friends but she says it doesn't bother her.

Some taller people may find their height trouble but Jackie Yoder wouldn't trade hers for the world.

SHORT PEOPLE AREN'T SO BAD

If you like being a child in plays and musicals you should be the size of Valerie Vance. Valerie says she's 4'11" and she thinks it "kinda" affects the parts she gets. When asked if she wishes she were taller she says, "In a way, sometimes I would like to be taller and play a teenager.

Valerie has played Gretel in the Sound of Music last year and she was in the chorus and she was one of the Snow children in Carousel. So far she hasn't gone out for any plays yet but she plans to next year. Then when asked if she would encourage others to try out she said she already has!

Freshman

A Novice, Newcomer; a student in his or her first year (as in high school). That the way the dictionary sees freshman. We might add that they are somewhat difficult to categorize since they are in their first year of high school yet they do not have all of the privileges of that lofty institution. They are a creature about to spread its wings.

Freshman grow up quickly. They have the heaviest schedule in the school. There is very little study time and it is the only year without social studies. Each ninth grader meets with Mrs. Loidl to plan all four years. Those years will pass more quickly than they think.

HEY, WOW — FINALLY HIGH SCHOOL.

A FALCON FLYING HIGH

If someone has to take a poll for the most well-know freshman, somebody who would rank high would be Jeff Miller. Jeff was moved up to the Varsity Basketball team this year which caused a lot of special cheering from the freshman girls in Pep Club!

You would think that playing Varsity as a freshman would make a big difference in the amount of attention he receives. From his classmates he says he does receive some attention, "they ask me questions". He says that some girls called him a star but he doesn't pay any attention, it doesn't bother him. Jeff feels that the guys on the team treat him equally.

As for other sports; Jeff likes Baseball besides Basketball but doesn't know about going out.

Sophomores

Noah Webster says a sophomore is a person in his or her second year of college or secondary school. At Fairfield it is also a person in his or her first year in the cafetorium. It is also the year of the driver permit and finally the drivers license. Class rings are astutely studied as if they were engagement rings. Some of them finally find themselves in that cetegory as a few couples get "serious".

Being a sophomore in '78 meant being snowed in for a week and coming back to a history test. They really picked up where they left off.

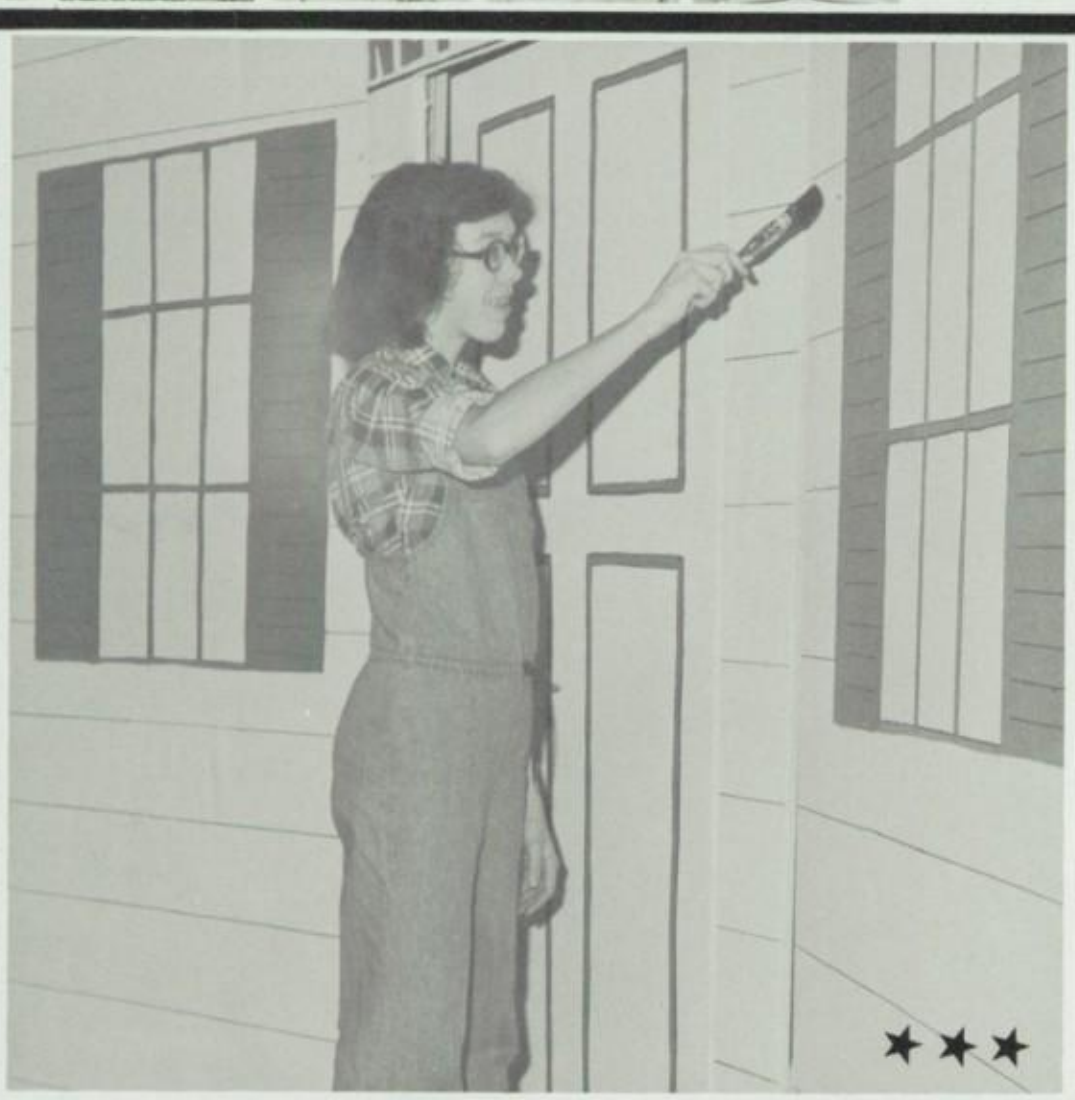
★★★ Elise Rose works on the scenery for this year's musical, "Carousel". This is one of many jobs that is done in preparation for the plays and musicals.



When you see a play or musical what is it that makes you feel as if you are really there and makes it believable? Part of it is the believability of the actors and actresses but a bigger part of it is the scenery and props. They are used so your imagination doesn't have to work as hard and you can concentrate more on what's being said. A major figure in readying the scenery is Elisa Rose. Elisa is involved in designing, drawing, and painting the scenery. There is a lot that has to go into preparing the scenery, after it has been designed and decided on by Mr. Jordan, Mr. Saddler and Mrs. Craven. Now, the Drama Department has flats but if it didn't they would have to be made besides being drawn out and painted. Then they have to be marked on the stage as to where they go.

For this year's musical a house and spa were needed besides trees, an island and most of all a carousel. Elisa says she does scenery work because she likes to feel she accomplished something. As for doing this in her future she says she thinks it would be fun every now and then, but she wouldn't want to do it for a job.

INN-BETWEEN SCHOOL AND SLEEP.

With a lot of students working, many (especially girls) work at restaurants. One of them is Junior Penny Postma. Penny works at the Inn-Between in New Paris. During school she works an average of 3 nights a week and Saturdays. In the summer she alternates between the Inn-Between and Par- More.

She likes working because it gives her something to do. She likes working with people and you meet a lot of interesting people out there, and it's fun. But, she doesn't like working there when everybody that works there is kinda in a down mood, mad at each other, but luckily it doesn't happen very often.

Penny has worked at the Inn-Between for almost 4 years. And she does "whatever needs to be done."

MOMENTS SO PRECIOUS —

UY

00 AM — School? Oh no! I've got too many things to do today to waste time with going to school. I've got tuxes to pick up, flowers to pick up, cars to wash, hair to wash . . .

30 AM — Well, here I am whether I want to be or not. First I have Social Studies, then English, then Spanish and even Physics. It figures that I would have a full day untill I can get released.

0:00 AM — So far, pure unrelinquished boredom.

2:10 PM — Amen and hallugha, I'm finally out for the afternoon. But what'll I do first? Maybe I better wash the car, no . . . Gotta do that last. Pick up the flowers and tux? Oh, I don't know.

30 PM — Well, I've got my tux but what am I going to do with all these clothes? There is a lot more here than I can wear at one time. And what are these funny little straps on the back of this vest anyway?

15 PM — Well, I guess it's time I started getting dressed, all I've got to do is figure it out. This tux is tricky.

00 PM — What if I trip her? What if my car dies? What if I get a flat tire? What if I throw up? What if . . .

30 PM — Where is the food? I am simply starving to death, now just watch, I'll probably dump gravy all over my tux. Kline's would just love that.

00 PM — It is so hot. I ought to take off my jacket but what if one of those funny little straps on the back of my vest breaks?

0:30 PM — I've practically danced my feet off. And hers too, as many times as I've stepped on them.

1:30 PM — She looks so bored. What am I going to do?

2:30 AM — Now that I've changed clothes I feel a lot better. But I can't help but feel that somewhere I've forgot something. Maybe I can sleep through the movie.

00 AM — Now for a chance to get some rest.

30 AM — Well, I finally got her home. I guess her mom didn't wait up after all. I wonder if she'll ask me to go in?

35 AM — She asked.

40 AM — ?

BUT YET SO FEW.

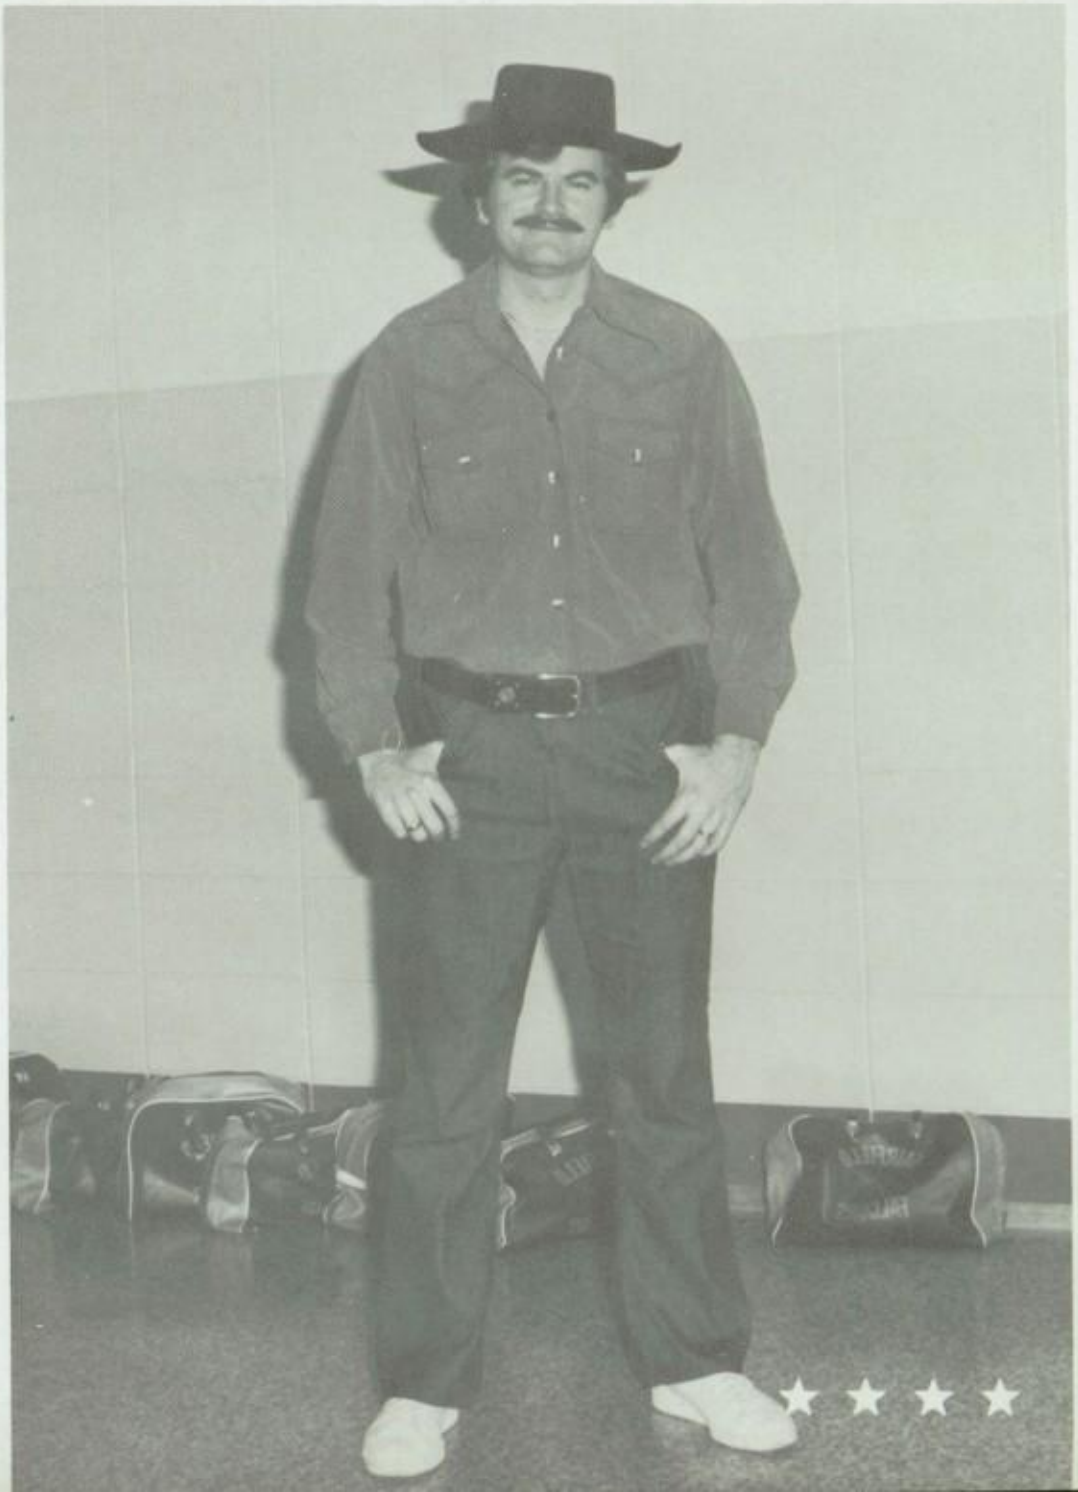
GIRL

7:00 AM — Oh no! I'm up late, now just when am I going to do my nails, and buy some new hose?
8:30 AM — I look absolutely horrible, he'll probably decide he doesn't want to take me. My jeans and T-shirt look like I slept in them.
10:00 AM — I hate English, I have never sat through anything so dull in my whole entire life. Just think, right now I could be washing my hair or shaving my legs.
12:10 PM — At last, now I can get ready but first I have to find my slip. Oh my gosh, when am I going to pick up his flower?
3:30 PM — Okay, dress, slip, hose, shoes. Where are my shoes? They've got to be here some place I know I just saw them!
4:15 PM — Time to get dressed so I can fool with my hair for an hour. I finally found ONE shoe!
5:00 PM — What if I trip him? What if his car dies? What if we get a flat tire? What if I throw up? What if . . .
6:30 PM — I am so hungry but I can't eat very much because my dress will probably rip out at the sides!
9:00 PM — I swear if I don't get out of here pretty soon I am likely to just overheat. But just my luck it will be raining outside.
9:10 PM — It is.
10:30 PM — Why do I have to be so short? I don't think I like dancing chin to forehead.
11:30 PM — He looks so bored. What am I going to do?
12:30 AM — I'm glad I'm out of that dress, I was starting to worry about my slip.
1:00 AM — Now for a chance to get some sleep at the movie.
3:30 AM — Ah, the night is almost over. Mom isn't even up, I guess I should ask him in but . . .
3:35 AM — I asked.
3:40 AM — ?

DON'T FOOL WITH THE COOL . . .



★ Eat your heart out Fonzie! Dennis Kesler shows how the styles were back in the 50's.
★★ Mr. Rouch poses for the camera on cowboy day.
★★★ Tune on in! Lynette Mishler tuned in on the happenings at F.H.S.
★★★★ Howdie Partner! Mr. Reagan gets ready to gun down his man like Marshal Dillon does on Gunsmoke!!!

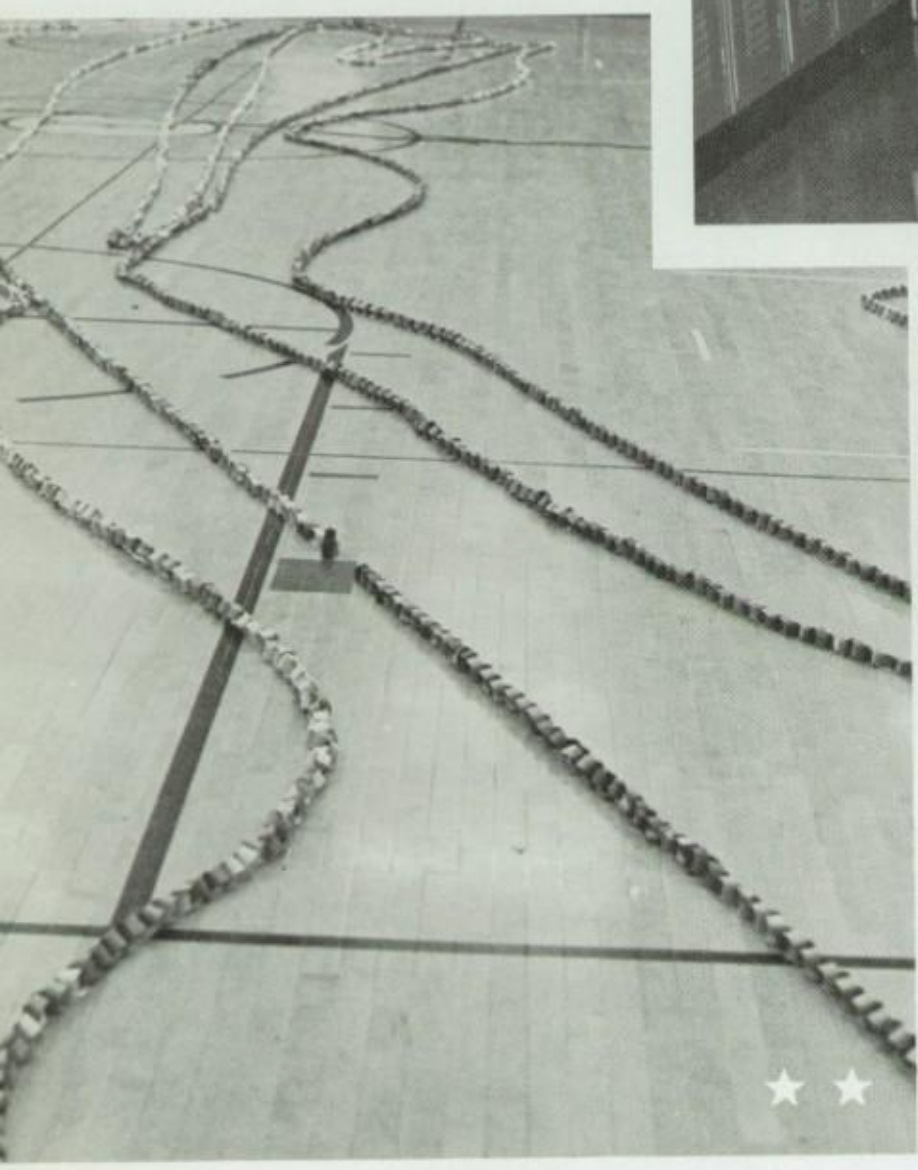
'CAUSE THE COOL DON'T FOOL

★ Dressing up CAN be fun!
★★ These two couples showed their school spirit by dressing in their formal clothes during Spirit Week.
★★★ Like husband — like wife. Mr. and Mrs. Metzler both get into the spirit of F.H.S.
★★★★ 1-2-3 — kick . . . These girls enjoyed bringing back the "good ole' days" during spirit week at F.H.S.

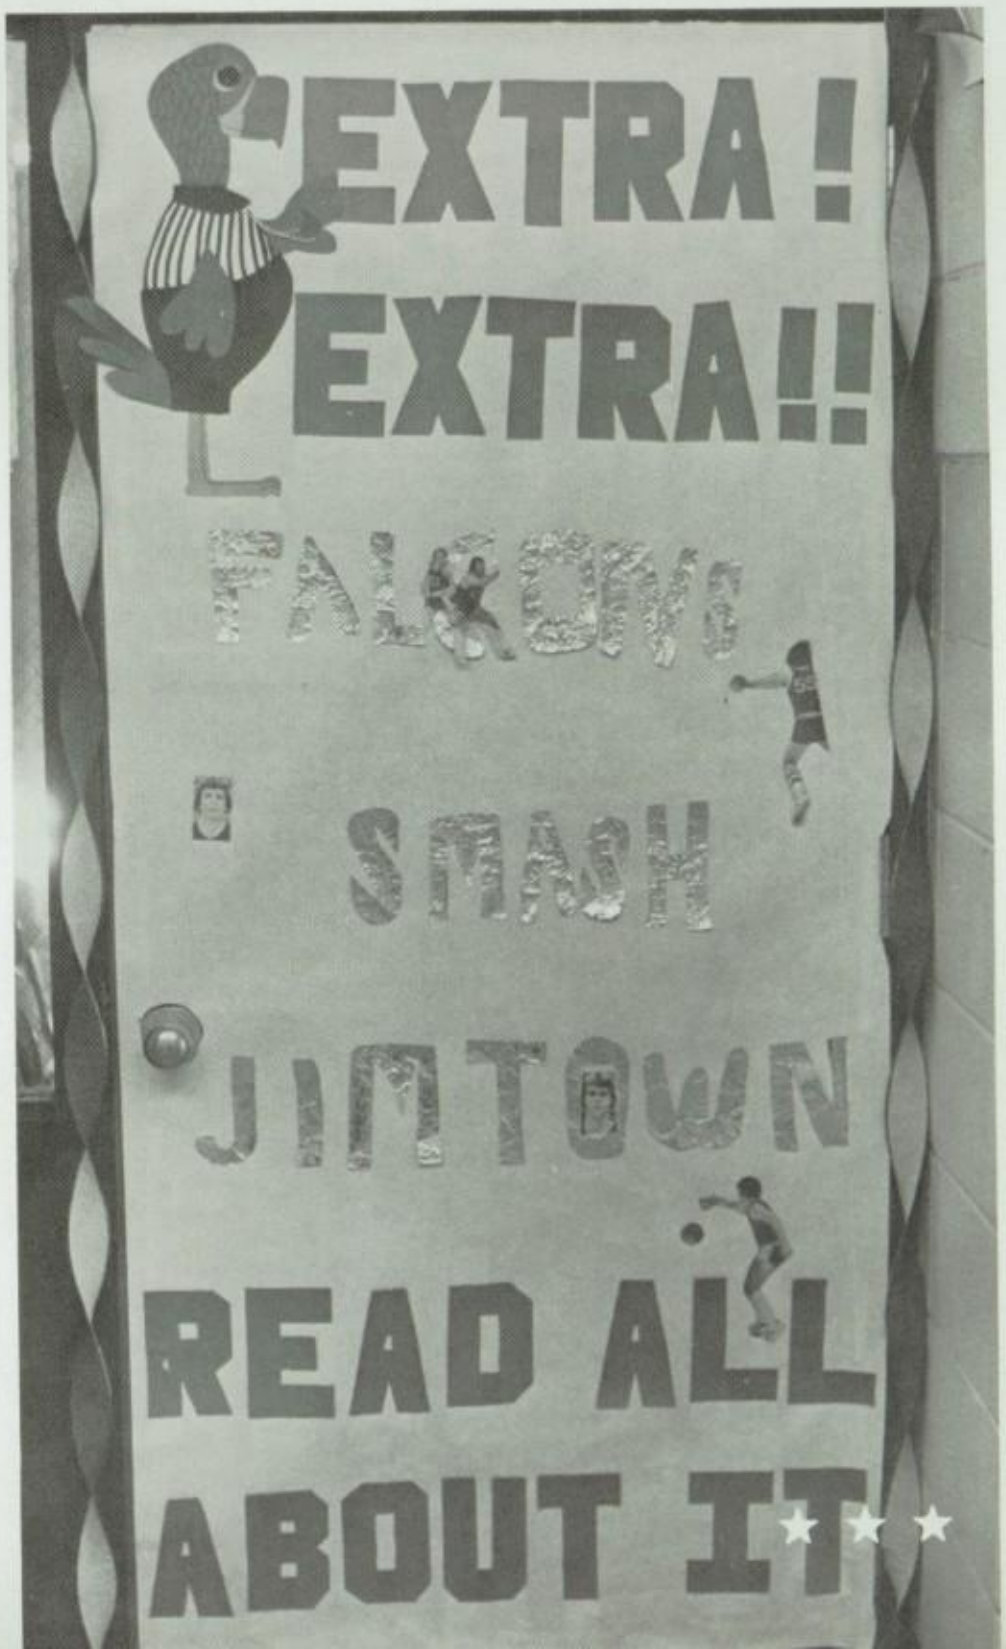
WE'VE GOT SPIRIT, YES WE DO!

Spirit Week is almost like Anything Goes Week. And this year was just as crazy as any other year. We had everything from antennas to commercials and from all black so we could mourn for the opponent after we stomped all over them to a touch of class when everyone dressed elegantly because the Falcons are true stars.

Of course we had the ever-popular blue and gold days when everyone showed their true colors. School spirit was higher than the sky and blue and gold are always the best colors ever.



★ These three freshman girls got into the spirit of F.H.S. by dressing up as their favorite commercial.
★★ Spirit was big at F.H.S. — with the 8th grade winning the spirit chain contest.
★★★ Extra, Extra! Everyone got into the spirit by decorating their homeroom doors.



★ Penny Kauffman showed her spirit by dressing up cowboy style.
★★ The teachers at F.H.S. even showed their support of our school by dressing up as their favorite commercial.
★★★ Favorite commercial day seemed to make it big with the kids. Jeff Setterberg shows how to "carry the big fresh flavor".
★★★★ The seniors showed their spirit by dressing elegantly. They look pretty cool — huh?

George Lynden Deb Kelli

In September we realized that this was the beginning of the end; the end of practice after school, of pretending to rehearse, but actually having a good time, of forcing your eyes open during a filmstrip, of laughing at your best friend's embarassment. After 12 years of cursing the alarm clock each morning, we finally realized that we would actually miss all the things that sometimes made us feel dopey.

Yes, we would miss Fairfield after all.

WE REALLY NEVER SAY GOOD-BYE

Tears of joy and sorrow . . . As the seniors of 1978 walked down the aisle to the sounds of "Pemp and Circumstance" they seemed to finally realize that this would be their last day in the gymnasium as a student of Fairfield High School.

Valedictorian Nadine Stilwell and Salutitorian Gail Dausman spoke and then the podium was turned over to guest speaker Gale Sayers. As the presentation of diplomas got under way, many parents and relatives prepared their cameras and flash cubes. And with the last strain of "Pass It On" still in their minds they left high school to start a new life.

NEW PARIS REMODLED

$2,500,000 SPENT ON SCHOOLS

DWIGHT GREISER TAKES NEW POST

The highlight of the year for the school corporation was the completion of the new Millersburg school and the extensive remodeling of New Paris. The junior-senior high school had its share of excitement with the North Central Association evaluation during March 7-10.

Dwight Grieser moved into his new position of Curriculum Coordinator and Business Manager. This position was created because many felt that more coordination was needed in the various subject areas in K-12, to make certain that students learned the basics. Eliminating duplication is also a goal. Mr. Ward was overburdened with all of the responsibilities in addition to supervising construction of the new school. The new position was especially welcomed by him.

The corporation had its share of problems with the coal strike and energy crisis. However, we were in better shape than most areas of the state. We missed only seven days. We were not closed any for lack of electricity. Outside lighting and some inside lights were off. Thermostats were down very low. But we all survived.

★ Maintainence personnel are: Jerry France, Louise France, Dick Wysong, Walter Bowman and Dean Sark.

★★ Some of the bus drivers are: Rose Ann Showalter, Don Carpenter, Sharon Erb, Bonnie Pfiester, Linda Erb, Bud Neff, Judy Culp, Ralph Smith, Mary Thompson, Rick McGowan, Evie Beer, Ervin Miller, Nancy Miller.

★★★ Our own Culinary Artisits: Lois Everest, Sara Fisher, Carol Rolston, Madonna Zollinger, Anna Mary Schrock, Nancy Burtsfield, Elora Beachy, Betty Martin, Alice Miller and Norma Weaver

THAT FABULOUS FACULTY

Everyone from the janitors and cooks to the teachers and administrators put forth their best effort this year. Whether in the classroom, athetic field, or cafeteria the staff made this year one of the best ever. Sometimes the noise from the lounge was a little loud but that only showed their untiring enthusiasm. They patrolled the halls before homeroom and swept the halls after school. They cooked the best school lunches in the state and drove us safely home. Thanks for a job well done.

★ Mr. Vance and Mr. Detweiler have a chatt between classes.
★★ Look at those Hillbillies: Mrs. Craven, Michele Lehman, Mr. Van Lue, Mr. Schroeder, Mrs. Cesco, Miss Kirk.
★★★ Very Artistic: Mr. Saddler directs the band.

★★★ Wow, look at those cuties as Levi Miller fixes a locker.

Now you don't have to choose between getting a good job and continuing your education.

Over 1,300 colleges, universities, and vocational technical schools and the Army has an educational plan called Project Ahead. It's a way to enlist in the Army and start your college education at the same time.

If you qualify under Project Ahead, you choose the participating school you'd like to graduate from before you enlist. Then no matter where you study while in the Army, you'll take courses taught by accredited colleges right on post, with the Army paying up to 75% of the tuition.

If you're interested in starting on your college degree while you're working at a good job, call me.

"Congradulations Class of 78"

"This is the beginning of a new day. God has given you this day to use as you will. You can waste it — or use it for good, but what you do today is important, because you are exchanging a day of your life for it! When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving in its place something that you have traded for it. May it be gain, and not loss; good, and not evil; success, and not failure; in order that you shall not regret the price you have paid for it."

Best Wishes for a Good Life.

Sincerely,
V.H. Steury, President

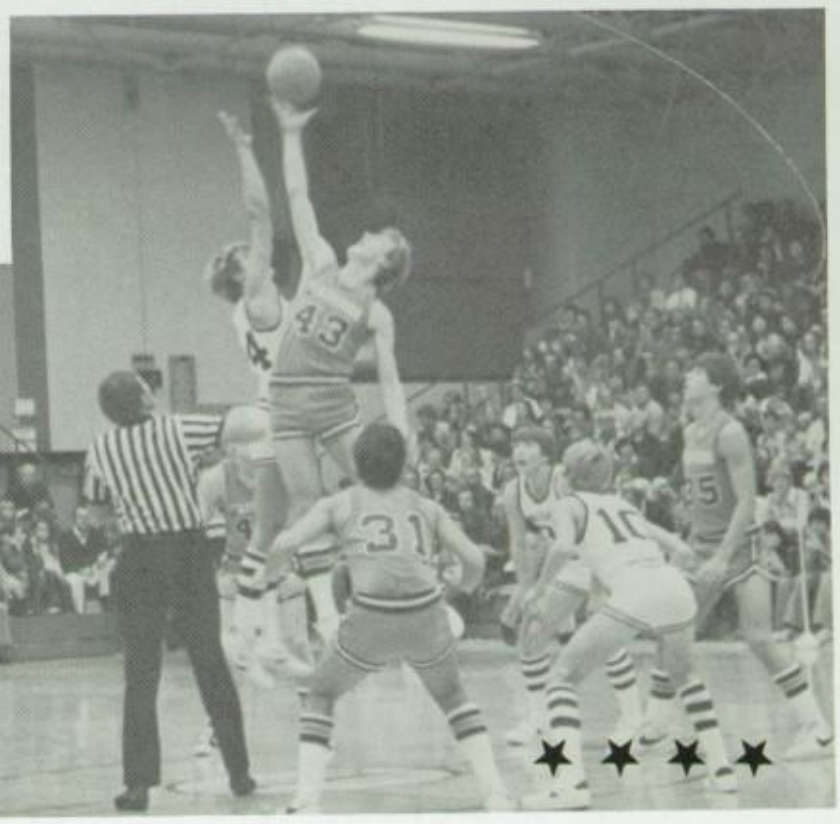
YOU, YOUR THE ONE —



Seniors last day at school
ught about many "odd" hap-ings, including stealing the chers chairs and running races and down the hallways.
Our advisor, Mr. Schroeder
ping us with the yearbook,
om we dedicate this yearbook

★ Running to Northridge was accomplishment this year by: 9 lor girls, 2 teachers, & 2 senior s.
★★ Basketball plays a big part many lives of students at F.H.S.
★★★ The janitors help a lot to p F.H.S. looking clean and t, and they don't get the recogon they deserve. So from all of here at F.H.S. here's a big ANKS!

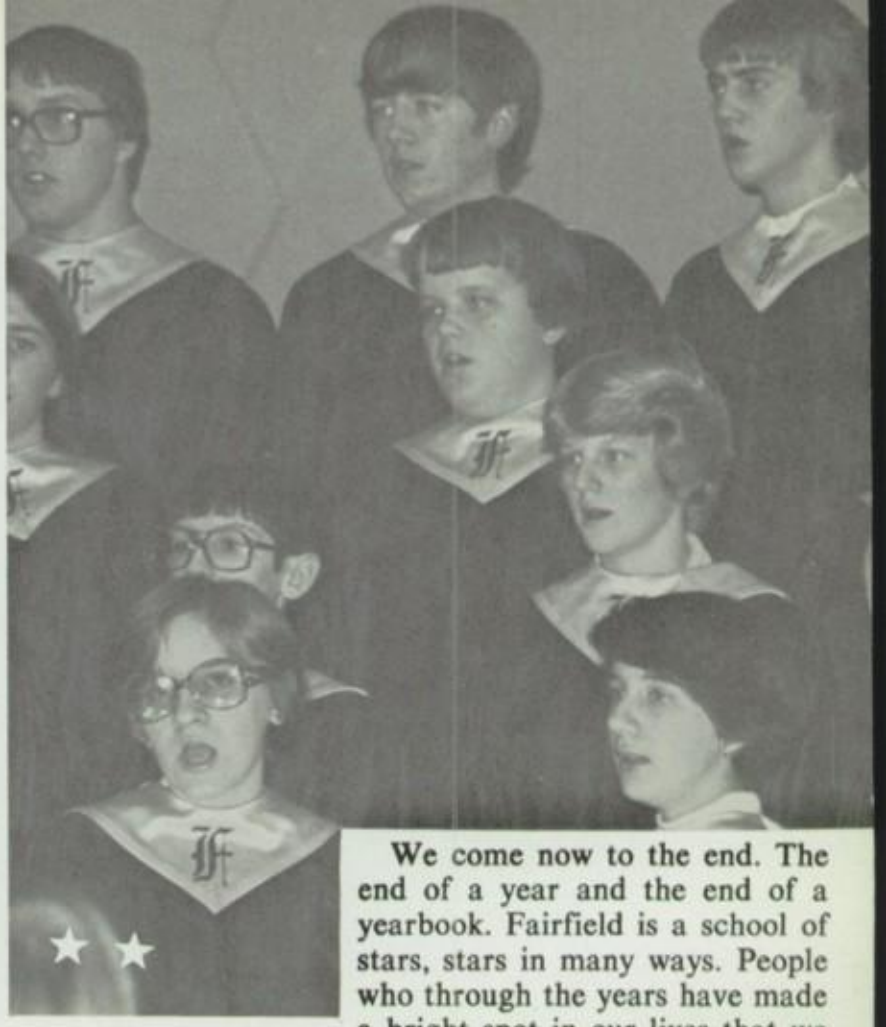
★ Fairfield has an excess of excellent teachers and the relationship between students and teachers is great. Here Mr. Weaver tries to stop some seniors from getting into the fun their last day of school.
★★ Music is a big part of many kids lives at F.H.S. and singing is a good way for students to express themselves.
★★★ Around prom time everyone seems to lose that winter blahh and picks up that spring time fever. One couple this year was Randy Bussard and Sheila Frisby.
★★★★ We on the yearbook staff have put a lot of hardwork into this yearbook to try to capture some of this year's feelings and moments for you to treasure always. This is what we looked like at the end of one of our meetings towards the end of the year.



WE DID IT ALL FOR YOU!

We come now to the end. The end of a year and the end of a yearbook. Fairfield is a school of stars, stars in many ways. People who through the years have made a bright spot in our lives that we will always always remember. The senior girls who ran to Northridge, the kids involved in sports, academics, and choir.

The prom was a major event in the lives of some but more importantly was the fun we had; with teachers and with our friends. Sometimes the janitors didn't have much fun though, especially when they were faced with the awesome piles of snow. The yearbook staff had fun too but they looked a little strange after the yearbook was finally out. The staff would like to thank their photographers, Mr. Swihart, Ken Nissley for his artwork, everyone who helped with the chicken barbeque, the staff themselves and most of all, our advisor Mr. Schroeder who let us use his house, his food and his life. We'd like to thank him especially because this will be his last year as our advisor and he has been a big help to us, and so the staff on our part would like to deciate this book to him.

Remember, no matter who you are, your light will shine like a superstar in all you've met and remember to let their light shine in you. Fairfield has become a part of our lives; a part we'll never forget.

I want to thank all of you for a super 4 years at Fairfield. It's going to be hard leaving here and I'm going to miss the fun and good times I've had here. It's been a pleasure being the editor of the yearbook this year & I hope you will enjoy it very much and treasure it in your lives. Good luck always & remember to always let your light shine.

Much luck to all,
Margaret Hein
